VOTES

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

JOVIS, 20° DIE JANUARII, 1785.

THE Houſe being met according to the laſt Prorogation, a Meſſage was brought from his Grace the Lord Lieutenant by George Bernard, Eſq. Gentleman Uſher of the Black Rod.

MR. SPEAKER,

It is his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, that this Houſe do attend him immediately in the Houſe of Peers.

Accordingly Mr. Speaker, with the Houſe, went up to attend his Grace, and being returned,

Several Members, and a Member returned upon a new Writ, took the Oaths, made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, according to the Laws made for thoſe Purpoſes.

Mr. Speaker reported that the Houſe had attended his Grace the Lord Lieutenant in the Houſe of Peers, where his Grace was pleaſed to make a Speech to both Houſes

of Parliament, of which Mr. Speaker ſaid (to prevent Miſtakes) he had obtained a Copy, which he read to the Houſe, and the ſame was afterwards read by the Clerk at the Table, and is as follows:

MY LORDS AND GENTLEMEN,

" I HAVE His Majeſty's Commands to meet you in " Parliament, and to deſire your Advice and Co-operation " upon thoſe Affairs of Importance which in the pre- " ſent Circumſtances of the Kingdom require your moſt " ſerious Attention.

" Whilſt I lamented the lawleſs Outrages and un- " conſtitutional Proceedings which had taken Place ſince " your laſt Prorogation, I had the Satisfaction to per- " ceive that theſe Exceſſes were confined to a few Places, " and even there condemned. And I have now the " Pleaſure to obſerve, that by the ſalutary Interpoſition " of the Laws, the general Tranquility is re-eſtabliſh- " ed."

GENTLEMEN OF THE HOUSE OF COMMONS,

" I HAVE ordered the Public Accounts to be laid be- " fore you. I have the fulleſt reliance on your ap- " proved Loyalty to the King, and Attachment to your " Country, that a due Conſideration of the Exigencies " of the State will lead you to make whatever Provi- " ſions ſhall appear to be neceſſary for the Public Ex- " pences, and for the honorable Support of His Majeſty's " Government."

MY LORDS AND GENTLEMEN,

" I AM to recommend in the King's Name to your " earneſt Inveſtigation thoſe Objects of Trade and Com- " merce between Great Britain and Ireland, which have " not yet received their complete Adjuſtment. In " framing a Plan with a View to a final Settlement, " you will be ſenſible that the Intereſt of Great " Britain and Ireland ought to be for ever united and " inſeparable. And his Majeſty relies on your Liberality

" and

" and Wiſdom for adopting ſuch an equitable Syſtem for " the joint Benefit of both Countries, and the Support of " the common Intereſt, as will ſecure mutual Satisfaction " and Permanency.

" The Encouragement and Extenſion of Agriculture " and Manufactures, and eſpecially of your Linen " Manufacture, will I am perſuaded engage your conſtant " Concern. Let me likewiſe direct your Attention in a " particular Manner to the Fiſheries on your Coaſts, " from which you may reaſonably hope for an improving " Source of Induſtry and Wealth to this Kingdom, and " of Strength to the Empire.

" The Liberality which you have always ſhewn to the " Maintenance of your Proteſtant Charter-Schools and " other Public Inſtitutions, makes it unneceſſary for me " to recommend them to your Care. You cannot more " beneficially exert this laudable Spirit than by directing " your Attention to improve, and to diffuſe throughout the " Kingdom, the Advantages of good Education. Senſible " of its eſſential Conſequence to the Morals and Happi- " neſs of the People, and to the Dignity of the Nation, " I am happy to aſſure you of His Majeſty's gracious " Patronage; and ſhall be earneſt to give every Aſſiſtance " in my Power to the Succeſs of ſuch Meaſures as " your Wiſdom may deviſe for this Important Purpoſe.

" It is the Province of your Prudence and Diſcretion " to conſider what new Proviſions may be neceſſary for " ſecuring the Subject againſt Violence and Outrage, for " the Regulation of the Police, and the better Execution " of the Laws, as well as for the general Encouragement " of peaceable Subordination and honeſt Induſtry. It will " be a pleaſing Taſk to me to aſſiſt and promote your " Exertions for the Tranquility of the Kingdom, for " upholding the Authority of the Legiſlature, and ſup- " porting the true Principles of our happy Conſtitution " both in Church and State.

" The Uniformity of Laws and of Religion, and a " common Intereſt in Treaties with Foreign States, form " a ſure Bond of mutual Connection and Attachment

" between Great Britain and Ireland. It will be your " Care to cheriſh thoſe ineſtimable Bleſſings with that " Spirit and Wiſdom which will render them effectual " Securities to the Strength and Proſperity of the " Empire."

A Motion was made that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty, to aſſure his Majeſty, that we embrace with unfeigned Satisfaction this Opportunity of repeating our Sentiments, of zealous and affectionate Attachment to his Royal Perſon and Government. That we gratefully acknowledge his Majeſty's Goodneſs, in having placed over us a Chief Governor, whoſe experienced Moderation and Firmneſs, peculiarly qualify him in the preſent Circumſtances of the Kingdom for ſo diſtinguiſhed a Truſt. That his Majeſty may rely upon the Zeal of his faithful Commons, to grant ſuch Supplies as may be ſuitable to the Exigencies of the State, the Intereſt of his People, and the liberal Support of his Majeſty's Government. That we return his Majeſty our ſincere Thanks for graciouſly recommending to our diligent Attention the final Adjuſtment of Commercial Objects with our Siſter Kingdom; and that deeply penetrated with his Majeſty's paternal Regard, manifeſting an equal Intereſt in the Proſperity of all his People, we ſhall conſider the advantages of every Part of the Empire, as the true Baſis of ſuch an Adjuſtment; and that as a Settlement arranged upon ſuch equitable Principles, muſt give univerſal Satisfaction, and its Advantages, in order to be Subſtantial muſt be laſting, we ſhall exert ourſelves to ſecure its Permanence with the ſame earneſtneſs that we ſhall ſeek its Accompliſhment; to repreſent to his Majeſty that we doubt not that the nature and extent of certain popular Diſturbances have been faithfully repreſented to his Majeſty, ſo as to prevent the Indiſcretion and Intemperance of the miſguided Few from inducing a general Imputation on the Conduct of his Majeſty's Loyal and Faithful Kingdom. That whilſt we declare our abhorrence of ſuch lawleſs and unconſtitutional Proceedings, his Majeſty may confide in our ſtrenuous and conſtant Endeavours to prevent their pernicious Effects, as well by our individual Influence as by our collective Exertions. To aſſure his Majeſty that the Agriculture, Manufactures, and eſpecially the Linen Manufacture, and Fiſheries, thoſe abundant ſources of Induſtry, Wealth and Population, ſhall be the conſtant objects of our earneſt Care. That the Proteſtant Charter Schools and other public Inſtitutions, which have experienced the liberal Protection of Parliament, ſhall not be deprived of our Attention. That his Majeſty's ſolicitude for the Advancement of Education, is a freſh Proof of that parental Affection, which has ever anxiouſly ſought out the Means of promoting the Happineſs of his People, and that his Majeſty's Recommendation will animate us in the purſuit, and encourage us to the Attainment of this ſacred Object. That ſenſible of the ineſtimable bleſſings to be derived from our happy Conſtitution, ſecured to us under his Royal Auſpices, we ſhould be undeſerving of thoſe eminent Advantages, if we were not reſolved to defend it from all Encroachments; and to reject with Indignation every Authority which may attempt to dictate to the Legiſlature. That we ſhall attentively conſider in what manner we may beſt ſecure the Execution of the Laws the Regulation of the Police, and the Protection of the Subject againſt Violence and Outrage, ſatisfied that without peaceable Subordination, honeſt Induſtry can never flouriſh. That the Reverence we ſhall ever preſerve for our Religion and Conſtitution, will induce us ſeduloufly to cultivate our Connection with Great Britain as their great Protection and Security, and conſtantly ſtudy to draw cloſer thoſe ties of Intereſt and Affection, which we truſt will for ever unite the Siſter Kingdoms; and that it is our earneſt Hope that the uniformity of Religion and Laws, and the Union of Intereſt, Foreign and Domeſtic, will inform Great Britain and Ireland, as with one Spirit to conſult the Proſperity and demonſtrate the Power of the Empire.

A Motion was made that an Amendment be made to the ſaid Motion, by expunging the Words experienced

And that as a Settlement arranged upon ſuch equitable

Principles

Principles muſt give univerſal Satisfaction, and its Advantages, in order to be ſubſtantial, muſt be laſting, we ſhall exert ourſelves to ſecure its Permanence with the ſame Earneſtneſs that we ſhall ſeek its Accompliſhment. To repreſent to his Majeſty that we doubt not that the Nature and Extent of certain popular Diſturbances have been faithfully repreſented to his Majeſty, ſo as to prevent the Indiſcretion and Intemperance of the miſguided few from inducing a general Imputation on the Conduct of his Majeſty's loyal and faithful Kingdom. That whilſt we declare our Abhorrence of ſuch lawleſs and unconſtitutional Proceedings, his Majeſty may confide in our ſtrenuous and conſtant Endeavours to prevent their pernicious Effects as well by our individual Influence as by our collective Exertions. To aſſure his Majeſty that the Agriculture, Manufactures, and eſpecially the Linen Manufacture and Fiſheries, thoſe abundant Sources of Induſtry, Wealth, and Population, ſhall be the conſtant Objects of our earneſt Care. THE Honorable Mr. Pakenham reported from the Committee appointed to draw up an Addreſs to his Majeſty, that they had drawn up an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was read, and afterwards read Paragraph by Paragraph, and is as follows:

TO THE

KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY,

THE HUMBLE

ADDRESS

OF THE

KNIGHTS, CITIZENS, AND BURGESSES

IN PARLIAMENT ASSEMBLED:

MOST GRACIOUS SOVEREIGN,

" WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects " the Commons of Ireland in Parliament aſſem- " bled, embrace with unfeigned Satisfaction this Oppor- " tunity of repeating our Sentiments of zealous and " affectionate Attachment to your Royal Perſon and " Government.

" We gratefully acknowledge your Majeſty's Goodneſs " in having placed over us a Chief Governor whoſe pri- " vate Virtues entitle him to the Eſteem and Regard of " this Houſe, and whoſe experienced Moderation and " Firmneſs peculiarly qualify him in the preſent Circum- " ſtances of the Kingdom for ſo diſtinguiſhed a Truſt.

" Your Majeſty may rely upon the Zeal of your " faithful Commons to grant ſuch Supplies as may be " ſuitable to the Exigencies of the State, the Intereſts of " your People, and the liberal Support of your Majeſty's " Government.

" We return your Majeſty our ſincere Thanks for " graciouſly recommending to our diligent Attention the final

" final Adjuſtment of commercial Objects with our Siſter
" Kingdom, deeply penetrated with your Majeſty's pa" ternal Regard, manifeſting an equal Intereſt in the " Proſperity of your People, we ſhall conſider the Ad" vantages of every Part of the Empire as the true Baſis
" of ſuch an Adjuſtment, and as a Settlement arranged
" upon theſe equitable Principles, muſt give univerſal
" Satisfaction, and its Advantages, in order to be Sub-
" ſtantial muſt be laſting, we ſhall exert ourſelves to " ſecure its Permanence with the ſame earneſtneſs that
" we ſhall ſeek its Accompliſhment.

" We doubt not that the Nature and Extent of cer" tain popular Diſturbances have been faithfully repre-
" ſented to your Majeſty, and will prevent the Indiſcretion
" and Intemperance of the miſguided Few from inducing
" a general Imputation on the Conduct of your Majeſty's
" loyal and faithful Kingdom; whilſt we declare our " Abhorrence of ſuch lawleſs and unconſtitutional Pro" ceedings, your Majeſty may confide in our ſtrenuous
" and conſtant Endeavours to prevent their pernicious
" Effects, as well by our individual Influence as by our " collective Exertions.

" The Agriculture, Manufactures and Fiſheries of this " Kingdom, thoſe abundant Sources of Induſtry, Wealth
" and Population, ſhall be the conſtant Objects of our " earneſt Care.

" The Proteſtant Charter Schools and other public
" Inſtitutions, which have experienced the liberal Pro" tection of Parliament, ſhall not be deprived of our " Attention.

" Your Majeſty's ſolicitude for the Advancement of " good Education, is a freſh Proof of that parental " Affection, which has ever anxiouſly ſought out the " Means of promoting the Happineſs of your People.
" Your Majeſty's Recommendation will animate us in " the purſuit, and encourage us to the Attainment of " this ſacred Object.

" Senſible

" Senſible of the ineſtimable Bleſſings to be derived " from our happy Conſtitution, ſecured to us under your " Royal Auſpices, we ſhould be undeſerving of thoſe " eminent Advantages, if we were not reſolved to " reject with Indignation every aſſumed Authority which " may attempt to dictate to the Legiſlature.

" We ſhall attentively conſider in what manner we " may beſt ſecure the Execution of the Laws, the Regu- " lation of the Police, and the Protection of the Subject " againſt Violence and Outrage, ſatisfied that without " peaceable Subordination, honeſt Induſtry can never " flouriſh.

" The Reverence we ſhall ever preſerve for our Reli- " gion and Conſtitution, will induce us ſedulouſly to cul- " tivate our Connection with Great Britain, as their " great Protection and Security; and conſtantly ſtudy to " draw cloſer thoſe Ties of Intereſt and Affection, which " we truſt will for ever unite the Siſter Kingdoms.

" The uniformity of Religion and Laws, and the " Union of Intereſt, foreign and domeſtic, will inform " Great Britain and Ireland, as with one Spirit to conſult " the Proſperity, and demonſtrate the Power of the Em- " pire."

The firſt Paragraph of the ſaid Addreſs being read a ſecond Time, an Amendment was propoſed to be made thereto by adding at the End thereof the following Words; and of expreſſing our humble Confidence, that your Majeſty's paternal Benevolence to your loyal People of Ireland, aided by the Councils of Miniſters who have decidedly declared in favour of a Parliamentary Reform in Great Britain, will comply with the Wiſhes of your People in eſtabliſhing in this Kingdom that great and neceſſary Confirmation of the Conſtitution.

And the Queſtion being put, that the Words propoſed to be added ſtand Part of the Paragraph.

It paſſed in the Negative.

OF THE

KNIGHTS, CITIZENS, AND BURGESSES

IN PARLIAMENT ASSEMBLED:

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR GRACE,

" WE his Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, " the Commons of Ireland in Parliament aſ-
" ſembled, approach your Grace with the ſtrongeſt Sen" timents of Affection to your Perſon and Approbation
" of your Government.

" During a Period of Difficulty, which required the " happieſt tempering of Firmneſs with Moderation,
" the ſucceſsful Exerciſe of your perſonal and hereditary " Virtues, has confirmed the pleaſing Hope we early
" conceived of your Adminiſtration, and excites our " ardent Wiſhes for its long Continuance.

" Thoſe Acts of Outrage which for a Time diſgrac-
" ed the Metropolis, raiſe in us the utmoſt Abhorrence
" nor have the Attempts which have been directed
" againſt the Conſtitution, excited in us leſs Indigna" tion.

" Your

" Your Grace's ſpirited Diſapprobation of theſe Ex-
" ceſſes, and your manly Efforts to controul them,
" merit our Applauſe and receive our warmeſt Acknow-

" Regard for the Honour and Dignity of the Crown,
" and the Intereſts of the Nation, will diſpoſe us to " model our Supplies, ſo as may evince our Loyalty to " our Sovereign, and our Attention to the Happineſs
" of his People.

" From the gracious Manner in which his Majeſty
" has condeſcended to recommend a final Settlement of " Trade and Commerce between Great Britain and " Ireland; we have ample reaſon to be convinced of " the good Effects of your Grace's Repreſentations,
" and the Weight of your Interpoſition; in particular
" we acknowledge your Grace's Wiſdom, which, diſ-
" daining the Uſe of temporary Expedients, has adopt" ed the nobler Work of a complete and final Settle" ment.

" We ſhall eagerly purſue the wiſe Principles which " your Grace has pointed out for this Arrangement,
" and endeavour to form a Syſtem on ſuch a Baſis as

A petition of certain merchants, who have been nominated a council, by a numerous body of traders, aſſociated under the title of the Chamber of Commerce of the city Dublin, was preſented to the Houſe and read; ſetting forth, that they have ſeen certain propoſitions which have been ſubmitted to this Houſe, for a final adjuſtment of trade and commerce between Great Britain and Ireland,

and

and repreſenting to the Houſe, that the propoſition for eſtabliſhing between each kingdom, the ſame duties on the admiſſion into each, of articles of the growth, product or manufacture of the other, will not, in ſome inſtances, really accompliſh that reciprocity on which the propoſitions are profeſſed to be founded, in as much as the maturity of the one country cauſing her manufacture to be of a fine fabrick, while the infancy of the other will only allow her manufacture to be of a coarſe fabrick, the ſame duty per yard being laid on the coarſe as on the fine, may be admiſſion to the one, but excluſion to the other; that where there now exiſts any prohibition in either kingdom, on the exportation to the other, of articles of its growth, product or manufacture; the encountering ſuch prohibition with prohibition, is not calculated to encourage and extend the trade betwcen both kingdoms, or reconcileable to that ſpirit of affection and mutual liberality of intercourſe which ſhould prevail between countries ſo cloſely connected, but that if a meaſure ſo unfriendly as that of prohibition will be perſiſted in on the Part of Great Britain, it will be impolitic in Ireland to preclude herſelf for ever from adopting a ſimilar conduct, in reſpect to the exportation of the material of her ſtaple manufacture, that they conceive that an effectual preference to articles of the growth, product or manufacture of each country over ſimilar articles of foreign growth, product or manufacture on their importation into the other country, ſhould be ſecured by a mutual engagement, that any preſent exiſting preference ſhould in no ſort be ever hereafter leſſened, and ſubmitting the premiſes to the conſideration of the Houſe.

ORDERED,

That the ſaid petition be referred to the committee of the whole Houſe, appointed to take into further conſideration that part of his grace the Lord Lieutenant's ſpeech, which relates to an adjuſtment of trade and commerce between Great Britain and Ireland.

A petition of the Manufacturers of wool, worſted, ſilk, cotton and mixed goods of the city of Dublin and liberties adjoining, was preſented to the Houſe and read;

ſetting forth, that they perceive reſolutions have been propoſed to the Houſe for a final adjuſtment of trade between Great Britain and Ireland; that by thoſe reſolutions Britiſh goods are to be admitted at the preſent duties into Ireland, and petitioners have not the ſmalleſt hope of the Iriſh manufacturers being able to procure a ſale for their fabrics in the markets of Great Britain, under the propoſed regulation; but Britiſh goods will ſtill continue to command a preference in our own markets, and prevent us (as hitherto) from manufacturing either for domeſtic trade, foreign export, or the Britiſh market; and praying that they may be allowed either time minutely to conſider ſaid reſolutions, and prepare a repreſentation of their opinion of the effects by them likely to be induced on this country, or that the Houſe will admit council to be heard at the bar on petitioners behalf, touching the propoſed reſolutions.

ORDERED,

That the ſaid petition be referred to the laſt named committee.

Mr. Solicitor General, according to order, reported from the committee of the whole Houſe appointed to take into further conſideration that part of his grace the Lord Lieutenant's ſpeech, which relates to an adjuſtment of trade and commerce between Great Britain and Ireland, the reſolutions which the committee had directed him to report to the Houſe, which he read in his place, and after delivered in at the table, where the ſame were read, and are as follow:

RESOLVED,

1. RESOLVED,

That it is the opinion of this committee, That it is highly important to the general intereſt of the Britiſh empire, that the trade between Great Britain and Ireland be encouraged and extended as much as poſſible, and for that purpoſe, that the intercourſe and commerce be finally ſettled and regulated on permanent and equitable principles, for the mutual benefit of both countries.

2. RESOLVED,

That it is the opinion of this committee, That towards carrying into full effect ſo deſirable a ſettlement, it is fit and proper that all articles, not the growth or manufacture of Great Britain or Ireland, ſhould be imported into each kingdom from the other reciprocally, under the ſame regulations, and at the ſame duties, if ſubject to duties to which they are liable, when imported directly from the place of their growth, product, or manufacture; and that all duties originally paid on importation into either country reſpectively, ſhall be fully drawn back on exportation to the other.

3. RESOLVED,

That it is the opinion of this committee, That for the ſame purpoſe it is proper that no prohibition ſhould exiſt in either country againſt the importation, uſe, or ſale of any article, the growth, product, or manufacture of the other; and that the duty on the importation of every ſuch article, if ſubject to duty in either country, ſhould be preciſely the ſame in the one country as in the other, except where an addition may be neceſſary in either country, in conſequence of an internal duty on any ſuch article of its own conſumption.

4. RESOLVED,

That it is the opinion of this committee, That in all caſes where the duties on articles of the growth, product, or manufacture of either country, are different on the importation importation into the other, it would be expedient that they ſhould be reduced in the kingdom where they are the higheſt, to the amount payable in the other; and that all ſuch articles ſhould be exportable from the kingdom into which they ſhall be imported, as free from duty as the ſimilar commodities, or home manufacture of the ſame kingdom.

5. RESOLVED,

That it is the opinion of this committee, That for the ſame purpoſe it is alſo proper, that in all caſes where either kingdom ſhall charge articles of its own conſumption with an internal duty on the manufacture, or a duty on the material, the ſame manufacture, when imported from the other, may be charged with a farther duty on importation to the ſame amount as the internal duty on the manufacture, or to an amount adequate to countervail the duty on the material, and ſhall be entitled to ſuch drawbacks or bounties on exportation as may leave the ſame ſubject to no heavier burden than the home-made manufacture; ſuch farther duty to continue ſo long only as the internal conſumption ſhall be charged with the duty or duties to balance which it ſhall be impoſed, or until the manufacture coming from the other kingdom, ſhall be ſubjected there to an equal burden not drawn back, or compenſated on exportation.

6. RESOLVED,

That it is the opinion of this committee, That in order to give permanency to the ſettlement now intended to be eſtabliſhed, it is neceſſary that no prohibition, or new or additional duties, ſhould be hereafter impoſed in either kingdom, on the importation of any article of the growth, product, or manufacture of the other, except ſuch additional duties as may be requiſite to balance duties on internal conſumption, purſuant to the foregoing reſolution.

7. Resolved,

That it is the opinion of this committee, That for the ſame purpoſe, it is neceſſary farther, That no prohibitions, or new or additional duties ſhould be hereafter impoſed in either kingdom, on the exportation of any article of native growth, product, or manufacture, from thence to the other, except ſuch as either kingdom may deem expedient from time to time upon corn, meal, malt, flour and biſcuits; and alſo, except where there now exiſts any prohibition which is not reciprocal, or any duty which is not equal in both kingdoms; in every which caſe, the prohibition may be made reciprocal, or the duties raiſed, ſo as to make them equal.

8. Resolved,

That it is the opinion of this committee, That for the ſame purpoſe, it is neceſſary, that no bounties whatſoever ſhould be paid, or payable in either kingdom, on the exportation of any article to the other, except ſuch as relate to corn, meal, malt, flour and biſcuits; and ſuch as are in the nature of drawbacks, or compenſation for duties paid; and that no bounty ſhould be granted in this kingdom, on the exportation of any article imported from the Britiſh plantations, or any manufacture made of ſuch article, unleſs in caſes where a ſimilar bounty is payable in Britain, on exportation from thence, or where ſuch bounty is merely in the nature of a drawback, or compenſation of, or for duties paid over and above any duties paid thereon in Britain.

9. Resolved,

That it is the opinion of this committee, That it is expedient for the general benefit of the Britiſh empire, that the importation of articles from foreign ſtates, ſhould be regulated from time to time in each kingdom, on ſuch terms as may afford an effectual preference to the importation of ſimilar articles of the growth, produce, or manufacture of the other.

10. Resolved,

10. RESOLVED,

That it is the opinion of this committee, That it is eſſential to the commercial intereſts of this country, to prevent, as much as poſſible, an accumulation of national debt; and that therefore it is highly expedient, that the annual revenues of this kingdom ſhould be made equal to its annual expences.

11. RESOLVED,

That it is the opinion of this committee, That for the better protection of trade, whatever ſum the groſs hereditary revenue of this kingdom (after deducting all drawbacks, re-payments, or bounties granted in the nature of drawbacks) ſhall produce over and above the ſum of ſix hundred and fifty-ſix thouſand pounds in each year of peace, wherein the annual revenues ſhall be equal to the annual expences, and in each year of war, without regard to ſuch equality, ſhould be appropriated towards the ſupport of the naval force of the empire, in ſuch manner as the parliament of this kingdom ſhall direct.

It was carried in the affirmative.

A motion being made, and the queſtion put, that it be reſolved by and Commons in Parliament aſſembled, That the ſaid reſolutions be laid before his Majeſty, together with an humble addreſs, to aſſure his Majeſty, that they are thoroughly ſenſible of his Majeſty's unwearied attention to the welfare and happineſs of his ſubjects; that our gratitude is peculiarly due to his Majeſty for the meaſures which, ſince the laſt ſeſſion of Parliament, have been taken by his royal command towards forming an arrangement of commercial intercourſe between Great and Ireland; that with the moſt ſanguine hope, they look forward to the confirmation of theſe reſolutions, containing the principles, upon which they truſt the commercial intereſts of the two nations will be finally eſtabliſhed; when theſe ſhall be happily and fully carried into effect, thro' his Majeſty's paternal goodneſs, and the wiſdom and liberality of his Parliaments of Great Britain and Ireland, they ſhall, with the moſt ſincere ſatisfaction, behold a ſyſtem eſtabliſhed upon the firm baſis of reciprocal advantage, which will completely ſtrengthen and cement the common intereſt and mutual affection of both kingdoms, and will indiſſolubly unite the efforts of all his Majeſty's ſubjects of Great Britain and Ireland in maintaining the ſtrength, increaſing the reſources, and extending the power and credit of the Britiſh empire: And that it is their fervent prayer, That his Majeſty may long poſſeſs the true reward of a great and generous mind in beholding the bleſſings derived under his royal auſpices, and in receiving the juſt tribute of the moſt zealous duty and attachment from his loyal and affectionate people.

It was carried in the affirmative.

ORDERED,

That the Right Honorable Mr. Chancellor of the Exchequer, do carry the ſaid reſolutions and alſo this reſolution to the Lords, and deſire their concurrence.

ORDERED,

22. RESOLVED,

That it is the opinion of this committee, That there ſhall be allowed and repaid, upon the export of any of the ſugars or paneles, mentioned in the foregoing ſchedule, within three years after import, the ſeveral drawbacks in the ſaid ſchedule mentioned, and no other.

23. RESOLVED,

That it is the opinion of this committee, That all drawbacks or allowances, now given by law on the export of refined ſugars made in this kingdom, do now ceaſe and be no longer payable; and, that in lieu of ſaid drawbacks, and for the encouragement of refining ſugars in Ireland, a bounty ſhall be allowed and paid upon all refined ſugar, which ſhall be exported from this kingdom, during the time aforeſaid, after the rate of 1l. 8s. 2d. for every hundred weight of ſuch refined ſugar, exported in the loaf, compleat and whole, being net; that is to ſay, of one uniform whiteneſs throughout, and which hath gone through the operation of two or more clays, ſince it was laſt in the pan, and hath been properly and thoroughly dried in the ſtove, according to the preſent practice of refining, and after the rate of 12s. $7\frac{13}{20}\frac{3}{15}$ for every hundred weight of ſuch refined ſugar exported, called baſtards, and of all ground and powdered refined ſugar, and all refined loaf ſugar broke in pieces; the ſaid ſugar having been twice clayed, and properly dried in the ſtove; and likewiſe, of all candy, properly refined and manufactured, and free from dirt and ſcum.

24. RESOLVED,

That it is the opinion of this committee, That a duty of 1s. 3d. be laid on every pound of raw ſilk, which ſhall be imported into this kingdom from any place whatſoever, during the time aforeſaid, not being the produce of America, in lieu, and full ſatisfaction of all cuſtoms, exciſe and other duties whatſoever payable for the ſame, by virtue of any act or acts of Parliament heretofore made in this kingdom.

25. RESOLVED,

25. Resolved,

That it is the opinion of this committee, That from and after the 25th day of March, 1785, an allowance be paid on the exportation of all ribbands or ſtuffs made in Ireland, of ſilk only, after the rate of 3s. the pound weight averdupoize, and of all ſilks and ribbands made in Ireland of ſilk, mixed with gold and ſilver, after the rate of 4s. per pound weight; and of all ſilk ſtockings, ſilk gloves, fringes, laces, ſtitching and ſewing ſilk made in Ireland, after the rate of 1s. 3d. per pound weight, and of all ſtuffs made in Ireland of ſilk, and grogram yarn, after the rate of 8d. per pound weight; and of all ſtuffs made in Ireland, of ſilk, mixed with inkle or cotton, after the rate of 1s. the pound weight; and of all ſtuffs made in Ireland of ſilk and worſted, after the rate of 6d. per pound weight; and of all wrought or manufactured gold or ſilver plate made in this kingdom, after the rate of 6d. for every ounce weight.

26. Resolved,

That it is the opinion of this committee, That the following additional duties be laid on all damaſk towelling, napkins or cloths, made of flax or hemp, imported into this kingdom during the time aforeſaid, not being of the manufacture of Great-Britain; that is to ſay, a duty of 6d. per yard on all ſuch goods, at or under yard wide, and of 1s. per yard on all ſuch goods, from one yard to eight quarters wide; and 2s. per yard on all ſuch goods above eight quarters wide.

27. Resolved,

That it is the opinion of this committee, That bounties ought to be given on all plain Iriſh linens, and on all Iriſh linens, and Iriſh callicoes, and cotton mixed with linen, printed, painted, ſtained or dyed in this kingdom; being the breadth of twenty-five inches, or more, and not exceeding, when plain and unpainted, unſtained, unprinted, or undyed, the value of 1s. 7½d. per yard; and

and alſo on Iriſh diapers and huckabacks, ſheetings, and other linens above yard wide, and not exceeding 1s. 7½d. the ſquare yard, in value, which ſhall be exported from this kingdom to Africa, America, the Weſt-Indies, Spain, Portugal, Gibraltar, or Minorca, between the 25th day of March, 1785, and the 25th day of March, 1786, incluſive, after the rates following: that is to ſay, a bounty of one halfpenny per yard, for all under the value, as aforeſaid, of five-pence per yard; and a bounty of one penny per yard, for all of the value of five-pence, and under ſixpence the yard; and a bounty of 1½d. per yard, for all of the value of ſixpence, and under the value of 1s. 7½d. the yard; and a bounty of one halfpenny per yard, for all chequed and ſtriped linen, not exceeding 1s. 7½d. nor under 7d. per yard, in value; and a bounty of 1½d. for every ſquare yard of diapers, huckabacks, ſheetings, and other linens, upwards of a yard in breadth, not exceeding 1s. 7½d. the ſquare yard, in value; and a bounty of 6½d. for every three ells of Iriſh made ſail-cloth, or canvas, fit for, or made into ſails, which ſhall be exported by way of merchandize, to any place, except Great-Britain, during the time aforeſaid; and ſo in proportion for any greater or leſs quantities; the value of all ſuch linen, if painted, ſtained, ſtamped or dyed, or of ſuch callicoes and cottons, mixed with linen; whereupon they are to be reſpectively intitled to the bounties aforeſaid, to be deemed their value when in a plain ſtate, and excluſive of ſuch painting, ſtaining, ſtamping, or dying.

28. Resolved,

That it is the opinion of this committee, That in order to encourage the growth of flax-ſeed in this kingdom, it will be expedient to diſcontinue all bounties on the import of foreign ſeed, and to give bounties to encourage the cultivation of it at home.

 29. Resolved,

29. Resolved,

That it is the opinion of this committee, that for and upon every 100l. value of ſpeckle wood, as the ſame is rated for cuſtom, which ſhall be imported into this kingdom from Africa, or Great Britain, during the time aforeſaid, there ſhall be paid down in ready money, nett, without diſcount or allowance, the ſeveral duties following, that is to ſay, if the ſame be imported by any of his Majeſty's ſubjects, a duty of 22l. 15s. 0d. but if the ſame be imported by ſtrangers, then a duty of 24l. 3s. 5¼d. and ſo in proportion for any greater or leſs quantity. The ſaid duties to be in lieu and full ſatisfaction of all duties, cuſtoms and exciſe, payable thereon by virtue of any law or laws heretofore made in this kingdom; and that upon the exportation thereof, within three years after import, there ſhall be allowed and paid, a drawback of equal amount to the duties reſpectively charged hereby on the import of ſuch ſpeckle wood.

30. Resolved,

That it is the opinion of this committee, that for and upon all beaver ſkins, of the produce of the Britiſh plantations in America, or the Weſt-Indies, which ſhall be imported into this kingdom during the time aforeſaid, there ſhall be paid down in ready money, nett, without diſcount or allowance, a duty after the rate of 9s. 5¾d. for every five ſcore of ſkins, and ſo in proportion for any greater or leſs number, in lieu and full ſatisfaction of all cuſtoms, duties and exciſe, payable thereon by virtue of any act or acts of Parliament heretofore made in this kingdom.

31. Resolved,

That it is the opinion of this committee, That for and upon all beaver wool, cut and combed, the produce and manufacture of the ſaid plantations, which ſhall be imported into this kingdom during the time aforeſaid, there ſhall be paid down in ready money, nett, without diſcount or allowance, a duty after the rate of 17s. 0¾d.

0¾d, for every pound weight thereof in lieu and full ſatisfaction of all duties, cuſtoms and exciſe payable thereon, by any act or acts of Parliament heretofore made in this kingdom, and ſo in proportion for any greater or leſs quantity, and that the ſaid duty ſhall be fully drawn back and repaid on due exportation thereof, within three years after importation.

32. Resolved,

That it is the opinion of this committee, That for and upon all cotton, wool of the growth or produce of the Britiſh plantations in America, or the Weſt Indies, which ſhall be exported from this kingdom during the time aforeſaid, in any other than Britiſh or Iriſh ſhipping, there ſhall be paid down in ready money, nett, without diſcount or allowance, a duty after the rate of 5l. 13s. 9d, for every one hundred pounds value thereof, and ſo in proportion for any greater or leſs value in lieu and full ſatisfaction of all duties and cuſtoms payable on the ſame by virtue of any act or acts of Parliament heretofore made in this kingdom.

33. Resolved,

That it is the opinion of this committee, That for and upon all beaver wool or wombs, which ſhall have been imported from the ſaid plantations or ſettlements, and which ſhall be afterwards exported from this kingdom, during the time aforeſaid, there ſhall be paid down in ready money nett, without diſcount or allowance, a duty after the rate of 8l. 10s. 7½d. for every five ſcore pounds weight thereof, and ſo in proportion for any greater or leſs quantity, in lieu and full ſatisfaction of all duties and cuſtoms payable thereon, by virtue of any act or acts of Parliament heretofore made in this kingdom.

34. Resolved,

That it is the opinion of this committee, That for and upon every piece of white woollen cloth, called broad cloth, cloth, which ſhall be exported from this kingdom during the time aforeſaid, to any of the ſaid plantations or ſettlements, there ſhall be paid down in ready money nett, without diſcount or allowance, a duty of 5s. 8¼d. and ſo in proportion for any greater or leſs quantity, in lieu and full ſatisfaction of all duties and cuſtoms payable thereon, by virtue of any act or acts of Parliament heretofore made in this kingdom.

35. Resolved,

That it is the opinion of this committee, That from and after the 25th day of March 1785, no cuſtom ſubſidy or duty whatſoever, ſhall be payable on the export to any place whatſoever of logwood, of the growth or produce of the Britiſh Settlements in America or the Weſt-Indies, provided the ſame be exported in Britiſh or Iriſh ſhipping, nor upon any lead ore exported to Great Britain.

36. Resolved,

That it is the opinion of this committee, That from and after the 25th day of March 1785, all duties whatſoever paid on the importation of any callicoes or muſlins, ſhall be fully drawn back and repaid, for all ſuch as ſhall be printed, ſtained, painted or dyed in this kingdom or Great Britain, and ſhall be afterwards exported from hence to any place, except to any Britiſh Colony or Plantation in America or the Weſt Indies, and if the ſame ſhall be exported to any ſuch Colony or Plantation then that all ſaid duties ſhall be fully drawn back and repaid, except ſo much thereof as ſhall amount to a ſum after the rate of 5l. 8s. 4d. for every 100l. value thereof, as the ſame ſhall have been ſold by the candle, at the Eaſt India Company's ſales in London, and ſo in proportion for any greater or leſs quantity.

37. Resolved,

That it is the opinion of this committee, That all and every perſon and perſons, who ſhall, from and after the 25th

25th day of March 1785, import directly from America or the Weſt Indies, in any ſhip or veſſel belonging thereto, or to Great Britain or Ireland, and manned as in ſuch caſe is uſual, or from Great Britain any good and merchantable indigo, free from any falſe mixtures, and fit for dyers uſe; being the growth and product of any of his Majeſties Colonies in America, ſhall have, and be intitled to a reward or premium for ſuch importation, after the rate of 2s. 2d. for every ſix pound weight thereof, and ſo in proportion for any greater or leſs quantity.

38. Resolved,

That it is the opinion of this committee, That the ſeveral ſubſidies, duties and cuſtoms, except the alnage duties heretofore payable upon the export of any goods and merchandizes of the growth, product and manufacture of this kingdom be taken off, except on ſkins, hides of all ſorts, coney hair or wool, hares wool, hair of all ſorts, horns, live cattle of all ſorts, aſhes, bacon, beef, pork, butter, greaſe, guts, hogſlard, tallow, tongues, bones not manufactured, flax ſeed, hemp ſeed, linen yarn, linen rags or ſhreds, rape cakes, ſoapers waſte, tin unwrought, weld, wax or woad, and proviſions of all ſorts.

39. Resolved,

That it is the opinion of this committee, That no ſubſidy cuſtom or duty whatſoever, ſhall be raiſed, levied or paid on the export of any goods or merchandizes, the product or manufacture of this kingdom, to the Britiſh Plantations in America, the Weſt Indies, or the Britiſh Settlements on the coaſt of Africa, except on the ſeveral articles mentioned in the foregoing reſolution, and on iron and iron wares, leather tanned, dreſſed or tawed, ſhreds and points of leather, pelts, vellum and parchment, ſoap, hops, allum, lead, lead ore, copperas, coals, wool cards, white woollen cloth, lapis calaminaris, glue, and litharge of lead.

40. Resolved,

That it is the opinion of this committee, That from and after the 25th day of March 1785, the full duties which have been or ſhall be paid on the import of any goods, wares or merchandizes, except where it ſhall be otherwiſe provided this ſeſſion of Parliament, ſhall be fully repaid for ſuch as ſhall be exported by any merchant within three years after import to any place whatever.

41. Resolved,

That it is the opinion of this committee, That from and after the 25th day of March 1785, no cuſtoms, duties or ſubſidy whatever ſhall be payable on the importation of any unwrought timber or timber lumber, of the growth or produce of America, or the Weſt Indies, any wrought timber not being a maſt, yard or bowſprit, any wood or plank, any clean good merchantable, well conditioned pitch or tar, unmixed with droſs or water, or clean good merchantable turpentine, ſuch pitch, tar or turpentine, being the growth or produce of America or the Weſt Indies, and imported from thence or from Great Britain, any cotton, wool, indigo, cochineal, brazil, or fernambuco wood, log-wood, brazilletto or jamaica wood, nicorago wood, red or guinea wood, ſapan wood, mohogany or other wood, the product of America, or the Weſt Indies, any wood for dyers uſe imported from any place except ſpeckle wood of the growth of Africa, any whale fins, train oil or blubber the produce of whales taken or caught in any part of the ocean, by and imported in any ſhip or veſſel belonging to any of his Majeſty's ſubjects in this kingdom, Great Britain, Guernſey, Jerſey or the Iſle of Man, any raw or undreſſed goat ſkins imported in Britiſh or Iriſh ſhips, navigated according to law, from any port or place whatever, ever, any raw or undreſſed ſeal ſkins taken by the crews of veſſels belonging to, and fitted out from this kingdom, Great Britain, Jerſey, Guernſey, or the Iſle of Man, whereof the captain or maſter and three fourths of the mariners at the leaſt, are his Majeſty's ſubjects, or by perſons employed by the maſter or owner of ſuch veſſels, any raw ſilk of the growth or culture of America, any pig or bar iron made in America, and imported from thence or from Great Britain, any ſago powder or vermicelli imported from America or Great Britain, being the produce of America, any raw or undreſſed hides of ſteers, cows or other cattle whatſoever, except of horſes, mares or geldings imported from America or from Great Britain, being the produce of America, or any flaxen or hempen thread, being the manufacture of Great Britain, and imported from thence, or any dreſſed hemp or flax, being the produce of Great Britain, and imported from thence, or any undreſſed hemp or flax from any place whatſoever, any law, ſtatute or uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding.

42. RESOLVED,

That it is the opinion of this committee, That all goods, wares and merchandizes imported from the Britiſh Settlements on the coaſt of Africa, ſhall pay the ſame, and no other duties, as the like goods imported from the Britiſh Plantations in America, ſhall be ſubject to, except where it is otherwiſe particularly provided, and that a like amount of duty be drawn back on their exportation from this kingnom.

43. RESOLVED,

That it is the opinion of this committee, That for and upon the ſeveral articles of the growth, produce or manufacture of this kingdom, mentioned in the Schedule following, which ſhall be exported out of this kingdom during the time aforeſaid, to any Britiſh Colony or Plantation in America or the Weſt Indies, or any Britiſh Settlement on the coaſt of Africa, there ſhall be paid the ſeveral duties on the reſpective quantities contained and expreſſed expreſſed in the ſaid Schedule, and ſo in proportion for any greater or leſs quantity, the ſaid duties to be paid down in ready money nett, and to be lieu and full ſatisfaction of all duties now payable thereon, by virtue of any law or laws heretofore made in this kingdom,

A SCHEDULE,

A SCHEDULE of the reſpective duties payable upon the ſeveral articles therein enumerated, being the growth, produce or manufacture of this kingdom, on the exportation thereof to any Britiſh colony or plantation in America or the Weſt Indies, or any of the Britiſh ſettlements on the coaſt of Africa; the ſaid duties to be paid down in ready money nett, and to be in lieu and full ſatisfaction of all duties now payable by law for the ſame.

45. RESOLVED,

That it is the opinion of this committee, That a duty of ten ſhillings be paid by every perſon that doth or ſhall ſell or tap out by retail, any cider at any time during the time aforeſaid.

46. RESOLVED,

That it is the opinion of this committee, That a duty of one penny per gallon be laid on all cider, that ſhall be ſold or tapped out by retail, to be paid by the perſon who ſhall ſell or tap out the ſame, during the time aforeſaid.

47. RESOLVED,

That it is the opinion of this committee, That an additional duty of 20s. be laid on every coach, chariot, berlin, calaſh or chaiſe, with four wheels, which any perſon ſhall keep in his or her poſſeſſion, except cabriolets, garden chairs, hackney or ſtage carriages, and carriages kept by coach-makers for ſale, being in number not more than one, and 40s. for every coach, chariot, berlin, calaſh, or chaiſe with four wheels, which any perſon ſhall keep, exceeding that number, except as aforeſaid; and alſo an additional duty of 10s. on all chaiſes with two wheels, which any perſon ſhall keep in his or her poſſeſſion, except hackney chaiſes, and chaiſes kept by the makers for ſale, at any time between the 25th day of March 1785, and the 25th day of March 1786, incluſive.

48. RESOLVED,

That it is the opinion of this committee, That a further additional duty of 40s. be laid on every coach, chariot, berlin, calaſh, or chaiſe with four wheels which any perſon ſhall keep in his or her poſſeſſion, except cabriolets or garden chairs, hackney or ſtage carriages, and carriages kept by coach-makers for ſale at any time between 25th March 1785, and 25th March 1786.

49. RESOLVED,

49. RESOLVED,

That it is the opinion of this committee, That towards raiſing the ſupply granted to his Majeſty, a tax be laid on all travelling tinkers, ſmiths, caſters of iron and metal; and on all perſons hawking about trees, ſhrubs, or plants for ſale; and on all perſons who ſhall ſell, or expoſe to ſale, in any ſtall, ſtand, ſhed, booth, bulk, or other place, not being a part of, or in his dwelling-houſe, any new or old books, maps, prints, charts, pamphlets, or drawings; and on every perſon who ſhall ſell, or expoſe to ſale, any glaſs bottles, not being the maker or importer thereof, or not ſelling wine, ſpirits, beer or ale; and alſo on all hawkers, pedlars, petty chapmen, or any other trading perſons, going from town to town, or to other mens houſes, and travelling either on foot or with horſe, or otherwiſe carrying to ſell, or expoſing to ſale, any goods, wares, or merchandizes, except ſuch perſons as ſhall deal only in ſelling acts of parliament, forms of prayer, proclamations, gazettes, newſpapers, or almanacks; or fiſh, fruit, or victuals; or the real workers or makers of any goods or wares within this kingdom, who ſhall deal only in ſelling ſuch goods and wares, excepting alſo coopers, glaziers and harneſs makers.

50. RESOLVED,

That it is the opinion of this committee, That the ſaid tax laid upon all hawkers, pedlars, petty chapmen, and other perſons as aforeſaid, be 40s. on every ſuch hawker, pedlar, petty chapman, or other perſon; and alſo that the further ſum of 40s. be laid on every hawker, pedlar, petty chapman, and other trading perſon as aforeſaid, travelling with a horſe, aſs, mule, or other beaſt, bearing or drawing burthen, for each horſe, aſs, mule, or other beaſt, bearing or drawing burthen, he, or ſhe ſhall ſo travel with, over and above the ſaid firſt mentioned tax of 40s. from the 25th day of March 1785, to the 25th day of March 1786, incluſive.

51. Resolved,

That it is the opinion of this committee, That all duties of cuſtoms inwards, import, exciſe, and all other duties whatſoever, payable on the import of any goods, wares, and merchandizes, during the time aforeſaid, ſhall be paid down nett in ready money, without any diſcount or allowance for prompt payment.

52. Resolved,

That it is the opinion of this committee, That for and upon all goods, wares and merchandizes, which ſhall be imported into this kingdom, during the time aforeſaid, except ſugars, by any perſon, being a retailer or conſumer, there ſhall be paid in ready money nett, without diſcount or allowance for prompt payment, an additional duty after the rate of 10l. per centum on the duties payable thereon reſpectively, over and above the full amount of ſuch duties.

53. Resolved,

That it is the opinion of this committee, That there ſhall be raiſed, levied, collected and paid to his Majeſty, his heirs and ſucceſſors, during the time aforeſaid, an additional impoſt or duty after the rate of 5l. per cent. on the produce or amount of the duties payable on all teas and wines imported, and on the amount of the cuſtoms inwards, import, exciſe, additional and other duties, which ſhall be due and payable to his Majeſty, his heirs and ſucceſſors, during the time aforeſaid, and which ſhall be collected in this kingdom, for and upon any goods and merchandizes imported into the ſame, except upon tobacco's, hops and ſugars; and the ſeveral goods or merchandizes of the product or manufacture of the Britiſh Colonies in America or the Weſt Indies, or the Britiſh Settlements on the coaſt of Africa, whereon any duties are impoſed or altered this ſeſſion of Parliament.

54. Resolved,

54. RESOLVED,

That it is the opinion of this committee, That towards raiſing the ſupply granted to his Majeſty, there be paid a duty of 1s. on every entry inwards, which ſhall be made in the port of Dublin between the 25th day of March 1785, and 25th day of March 1786, except poſt entries and entries of coals, over and above all other duties or fees payable by any law or uſage for the ſame.

55. RESOLVED,

That it is the opinion of this committee, That a duty of 20s. per ton be laid upon every ton of ſoap boilers waſte, and of 3l. per ton on every ton of linen rags; and ſo in proportion for a greater or leſs quantity that ſhall be exported out of this kingdom during the time aforeſaid.

56. RESOLVED,

That it is the opinion of this committee, That an additional duty of 6d. per hide be laid upon every raw and untanned hide which ſhall be exported out of this kingdom, during the time aforeſaid, to any place except Great Britain.

57. RESOLVED,

That it is the opinion of this committee, That a duty of 15s. per ton be laid on all vinegar, being of Britiſh manufacture, and an additional duty of 5l. 6s. per ton upon all other vinegar which ſhall be imported into this kingdom during the time aforeſaid; the ſaid duty of 15s. to be in lieu and full ſatisfaction of all duties payable thereon by virtue of any act or acts of Parliament heretofore made in this kingdom.

58. RESOLVED,

That is the opinion of this committee, That towards raiſing the ſupply granted to his Majeſty, a general letter office or poſt office, together with all inferior neceſſary offices be continued within this kingdom, from the 25th day of March 1785, to the 25th day of March 1786; and that there ſhall be levied and paid to his Majeſty, his heirs and ſucceſſors, for the portage and conveyance of letters and packets by the ſaid offices, the ſeveral rates hereafter mentioned.

25th

59. Resolved,

That it is the opinion of this committee, That there ſhall be levied and paid to his Majeſty, his heirs and ſucceſſors, during the time aforeſaid, for the port and conveyance of every ſingle letter or piece of paper, from the office in this kingdom, where ſuch letter or piece of paper ſhall be put in, to any diſtance within the ſaid kingdom, not exceeding fifteen miles, Iriſh meaſure, the ſum of two pence; and to any diſtance exceeding fifteen miles, and not exceeding thirty miles, the ſum of three pence; and to any diſtance exceeding thirty miles, the ſum of four pence; and for every port and conveyance of every double letter, double the ſaid ſums reſpectively; and of every treble letter, treble the ſaid ſums reſpectively; and of every ounce weight, four times the ſaid ſums reſpectively; and ſo in proportion for any greater weight than an ounce; reckoning every quarter of an ounce equal to a ſingle letter.

60. Resolved,

That it is the opinion of this committee, That every letter or packet, directed from any place in this kingdom to any parts in Great Britain or beyond the ſeas, or received in this kingdom from Great Britain or any parts beyond the ſeas, ſhall be charged and pay according to the rates aforeſaid, for its portage and conveyance within this kingdom from or to Dublin, or from or to Donoghadee, according as it ſhall be reſpectively ſhipped from or landed in either of the ſaid places.

61. Resolved,

That it is the opinion of this committee, That every letter or packet paſſing through the general poſt office in the city of Dublin, from any place within this kingdom, not

not leſs diſtant than four miles from the ſaid office to any place within the ſaid kingdom, not leſs diſtant likewiſe than four miles from the ſaid office, ſhall be charged and pay according to the diſtances in the foregoing reſolutions to Dublin, and be further charged and pay according to the ſame from Dublin.

62. RESOLVED,

That it is the opinion of this committee, That for every letter or packet directed on board, or brought or ſent from on board any ſhip or veſſel riding or ſtopping in any port within this kingdom, there ſhall be charged and paid, over and above the rates aforeſaid, the ſum of one penny.

63. RESOLVED,

That it is the opinion of this committee, That towards raiſing the ſaid ſupply, a penny poſt office be continued in the city of Dublin for the port and conveyance of letters and packets within a circuit of four miles from the general poſt office in the ſame city.

64. RESOLVED,

That it is the opinion of this committee, That for every letter or packet, of any weight which ſhall be ſent to or delivered from the general poſt office by the penny poſt, from or to any place, not being within the limits of the ſaid city, as they are aſcertained and deſcribed in a map or ſurvey thereof made by Thomas Matthews, and depoſited in the general poſt office, there ſhall be paid the ſum of one penny, over and above or excluſive of the rates aforeſaid.

65. RESOLVED,

That it is the opinion of this committee, That for the port and conveyance of any letter or packet, being not more than four ounces in weight, from or to any place within the city of Dublin by the penny poſt office, there ſhall be paid, at the time of putting ſuch letter or packet into the office, the ſum of one penny; and for the port and conveyance of every letter or packet, not exceeding the like weight, from any place in the ſaid city to any place outſide of the ſaid city, within the circuit of the penny poſt office, or from any place outſide of the ſaid city within the circuit of the penny poſt, to any place in the ſaid city, there ſhall be paid at the time of putting in ſuch letter or packet the ſum of one penny, and a further ſum ot one penny on the delivery thereof.

66. RESOLVED,

That it is the opinion of this committee, That there ſhall be paid to his Majeſty, his heirs and ſucceſſors, for the delivery in Dublin of each Britiſh or foreign printed newſpaper, and each printed vote or proceeding in parliament arriving at the general poſt office in Dublin or Donoghadee from Great Britain, or beyond the ſeas, without cover or in cover, open at the ſides, the ſum of 1d. over and above all foreign poſtage charged thereon.

67. RESOLVED,

MARTIS, 1° DIE MARTIJ, 1785.

THE Houſe according to order proceeded to take into conſideration the amendments made by the Lords to an engroſſed bill ſent up by this Houſe, entitled an act to explain and amend the ſeveral acts made in this kingdom, and to encourage the building of houſes, and making other improvements on church lands, and to prevent dilapidations, and the ſaid amendments were read, and are as follow:

In the eighth roll between the word thouſand, and the word pounds, the words three hundred were inſerted, and in the ſame roll, after the word pounds, the following words were expunged, and ſubject to a ground rent of fifteen pounds a year; in the ninth roll between the word thouſand and the word pounds, the words three hundred were inſerted; in the tenth roll between the word thouſand and the word pounds, the words three hundred were inſerted, and between the word Limerick and the word and in the laſt roll, the following words were inſerted:

And whereas there is a ſmall lot of ground belonging to the ſaid ſee of Limerick, which adjoins to the church yard of St. Munchin's, in the ſaid city, upon which it was formerly intended to erect a ſee houſe, but upon further examination it was found that the ſame was too contracted, and not fit for the purpoſe, and therefore the deſign was laid aſide.

And whereas the ſaid ground has been waſte for ſeveral years, and whereas it would leſſen the charge upon the ſaid William Cecil, Lord Biſhop of Limerick, and his ſucceſſors, if the ſaid lot of ground were ſold for what can be got for the ſame, and the purchaſe money applied in part reduction of the ſaid ſum of three thouſand three hundred pounds.

Be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, for the purpoſe aforeſaid, that it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid William Cecil, Lord Biſhop of Limerick, to ſell the ſaid lot of ground for the higheſt price he can get for the ſame, and to convey the ſame to the perſon or perſons who ſhall purchaſe the ſame, and ſuch conveyance ſhall be good and effectual in the law againſt the ſaid William Cecil, Lord Biſhop of Limerick and his ſucceſſors; and be it enacted, by the authority aforeſaid, that the purchaſe money for the ſame ſhall be deducted out of the ſaid ſum of three thouſand three hundred pounds, and the reſidue thereof ſhall be charged and recovered in the proportions, and in the manner herein before directed, as to the ſaid ſum of three thouſand three hundred pounds.

And the ſaid amendments being read a ſecond time, were upon the queſtion being thereupon ſeverally put agreed to by the Houſe.

ORDERED

That the ſaid petition be referred to the conſideration of a committee.

And a committee was appointed accordingly.

A meſſage from the Lords by Mr. Walker and Mr. Veſey, two of the maſters in chancery, that the Lords have agreed to an engroſſed bill, ſent up by this houſe, intitled an act for granting bounties on gunpowder, the manufacture of this kingdom, exported, without any amendment; which bill the meſſengers delivered at the table, with their meſſage.

ALSO,

That the Lords have agreed to an engroſſed bill, ſent up by this houſe, intitled an act for extending the proviſions of an act paſſed in this kingdom in the fifth year of the reign of his preſent Majeſty, intitled an act for erecting and eſtabliſhing public infirmaries or hoſpitals in this kingdom, without any amendment.

ORDERED,

That the Right Honorable the Chancellor of the Exchequer do attend his Grace the Lord Lieutenant with an engroſſed bill, intitled an act for granting bounties on gunpowder, the manufacture of this kingdom, exported; and deſire that the ſame may be certified into Great Britain, purſuant to the act for that purpoſe, and then returned to this houſe.

The order that this houſe do, on Thurſday the 24th day of March inſtant, reſolve itſelf into a committee of the whole houſe, to take into further conſideration a bill for amending and the more effectual carrying into execution the ſeveral laws relating to the regiſtering of wills and deeds, and for the better regulating and conducting conducting the buſineſs of the ſaid office, being upon motion read,

ORDERED,

That the ſaid order be diſcharged.

And it appearing to the houſe that there were ſeveral errors in the ſaid bill,

ORDERED,

That leave be given to withdraw the ſaid bill, and to preſent another in a more perfect form.

And the ſame was withdrawn accordingly.

Mr. Boyd, according to order, preſented to the houſe a bill for amending and more effectually carrying into execution the ſeveral laws relating to the regiſtering of wills and deeds in the regiſtry-office of this kingdom, and for the better regulating and conducting the buſineſs of ſaid office; which was received and read a firſt time, and ordered to be read a ſecond time on Monday ſeven-night.

ORDERED,

That the bill be printed.

ORDERED,

That leave be given to bring in a bill to amend an act made in the ſeventeeth and eighteenth years of the reign of his preſent Majeſty, entitled an act for making and keeping in repair a circular road round the city of Dublin; and that the Right Honorable Mr. Gardiner and Mr. Burgh do prepare and bring in the ſame.

The Right Honorable Mr. Beresford preſented to the houſe, according to order, a bill for improving the port and harbour of Dublin, by regulating the ballaſt and pilot offices, and for enlarging the funds applicable to the improvement of the ſaid port and harbour; which was

was received and read the firſt time, and ordered to be read a ſecond time on Monday ſeven-night.

ORDERED,

That a committee be appointed to examine the information books of the ſeveral collectors laid before this houſe, and to report to the houſe their opinions upon the ſame, and upon the preſent mode of trial before the ſub-commiſſioners of exciſe.

And a committee was appointed accordingly.

ORDERED,

That the proper officer do lay before this houſe an account of the ſeveral appeals in caſes where trials have been had before the ſub-commiſſioners of exciſe, and the ſeveral ſums of money expended out of his Majeſty's revenue in reſpect of the ſame, for five years, ending the 25th of March laſt.

Mr. Hayes preſented to the houſe, according to order, a bill to explain and amend an act paſſed laſt ſeſſion of parliament, entitled an act for the protection and improvement of the inland fiſheries of this kingdom; which was received and read the firſt time, and ordered to be read a ſecond time on Monday ſeven-night.

Alderman Warren preſented to the houſe, according to order, a bill for regulating the fees payable to public notaries for noting and proteſting bills of exchange and promiſſory notes; which was received and read the firſt time, and ordered to be read a ſecond time on Monday ſeven-night.

A meſſage from his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, by George Bernard, Eſq; Gentleman-uſher of the Black Rod:

" MR. SPEAKER,

" It is his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's pleaſure that " this houſe do attend him immediately in the Houſe " of Peers."

Accordingly

Accordingly Mr. Speaker, with the houſe, went to attend his Grace.

And being returned,

Mr. Speaker reported that the houſe had attended his Grace the Lord Lieutenant in the Houſe of Peers, where his Grace was pleaſed to give the royal aſſent to the bills following:

15. An

15. An act for granting to his Majesty the duty therein mentioned, to be paid to the trustees of the Royal Exchange.

16. An act for granting the sum of four thousand pounds for the purposes therein-mentioned; and for continuing the several duties granted by an act passed in this kingdom in the third year of his Majesty's reign, intitled an act for continuing the encouragement given by former acts of parliament to the flaxen and hempen manufactures.

17. An act for granting the sum of nine thousand pounds to the Incorporated Society, for supporting the protestant charter schools of this kingdom.

18. An act for granting the sum of five thousand pounds to the Dublin Society, for the purposes therein-mentioned.

19. An act for granting the sum of three thousand pounds to the Lord Chancellor and Chief Judges, for the purposes therein-mentioned.

20. An act for granting the sum of ten thousand pounds to the governors of the Foundling-hospital and Work-house, for the purposes therein-mentioned.

21. An act for granting the sum of five thousand pounds to the Board of First Fruits, for the purposes therein-mentioned.

22. An act for granting the sum of one thousand pounds to the governors of the Hibernian School, for the support of that charity.

23. An act for granting the sum of eight thousand six hundred pounds to the corporation for relief of the poor of the city of Dublin.

24. An act for granting the sum of one thousand pounds to the Hibernian Marine Society, towards supporting the said charity.

25. An

25. An act for puniſhing mutiny and deſertion, and for the better payment of the army and their quarters within this kingdom.

26. An act for the relief of perſons who have omitted to qualify themſelves according to law.

27. An act to explain and amend the ſeveral acts made in this kingdom to encourage the building of houſes, and making other improvements on church lands, and to prevent dilapidations.

28. An act to take away the challenge to the array of pannels of jurors for want of a knight on trials in which a peer or lord of parliament is a party.

29. An act to repeal an act made in the thirteenth year of his late Majeſty King George the Second, intitled an act for repairing the road leading from the town of Nenagh, in the county of Tipperary, through the towns of Birr and Firbane, in the King's County, to Curranaboy-bridge, on the turnpike road leading to Athlone, in the county of Weſtmeath; and alſo an act made in the nineteenth and twentieth years of his preſent Majeſty, intitled an act for amending and making more effectual an act for repairing the road leading from the town of Nenagh, in the county of Tipperary, through the towns of Birr and Firbane, in the King's County, to Curranaboy-bridge, on the turnpike road leading to Athlone, in the county of Weſtmeath; and alſo for other purpoſes therein-mentioned.

RESOLVED,

That the thanks of this houſe be given to the Right Honorable Mr. Speaker, for the excellent ſpeech made by him at the bar of the Houſe of Peers on preſenting the money bills this day, and that he be requeſted to print the ſame.

ORDERED,

That Mr. Speaker do iſſue his warrant to the clerk of the crown to make out a new writ for electing a Burgeſs to ſerve in the preſent parliament for the Borough of Maryborough, in the Queen's County, in the room of the Right Hon. Sir Arthur Brooke, Baronet, deceaſed.

The Right Hon. Mr. Conyngham preſented to the houſe, according to order, a bill for the further improvement and extenſion of the fiſheries on the coaſts of this kingdom; which was received and read the firſt time, and ordered to be read a ſecond time on Monday ſeven-night.

A petition of the Right Honorable Francis Pierpoint, Lord Baron Conyngham, the nephew and heir at law of Henry, Earl Conyngham, deceaſed; Henry Burton, and Nathaniel William Burton, the only ſons of the ſaid Lord Baron Conyngham, minors, of the age of eighteen years or thereabouts, and unmarried, by their ſaid father and guardian the ſaid Francis Pierpoint, Lord Baron Conyngham; Richard Jones, Eſq; and Roger Jones, Eſq; his eldeſt ſon and heir apparent; and Alexander Murray, Eſq; who has no iſſue, was preſented to the houſe and read, ſetting forth that a petition has been preſented to this houſe by the Right Honorable William Conyngham, praying aid to make the neceſſary eſtabliſhments to carry on the fiſheries on the north-weſt coaſt of this kingdom; and that the ſaid Mr. Conyngham, by his ſaid petition, offers to raiſe by mortgage of the manor of Port Dungloe, part of his eſtate in the county of Donegal, the ſum of twenty thouſand pounds, to be expended upon the purpoſes aforeſaid, upon an equal ſum being granted by parliament for the ſaid purpoſes. That by the limitations of the ſaid manor of Port Dungloe, under the will of Henry, Earl Conyngham, deceaſed, ſaid William Conyngham (who has no iſſue) is made tenant for life of the ſaid manor, with ſeveral remainders over to your petitioners and others. That your your petitioners are the only perſons concerned in intereſt under the ſaid will, and that they are fully ſenſible of the great advantage the ſaid offer, if carried into execution, will be of to the ſaid eſtate, and your petitioners intereſt therein; but that by reaſon of the limitations aforeſaid, the ſaid William Conyngham is not empowered to raiſe any ſum on the ſaid eſtate, for the improvement thereof; and praying that leave may be given to bring in a bill for charging the ſaid manor of Port Dungloe, in the county of Donegal, with the ſaid ſum of twenty thouſand pounds, to be expended for the purpoſes aforeſaid.

ORDERED,

That the ſaid petition be referred to the conſideration of a committee.

And a committee was appointed accordingly.

The Right Honorable Mr. Chancellor of the Exchequer informed the Houſe that he was commanded by his Grace the Lord Lieutenant to acquaint the Houſe that it was his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's pleaſure that this Houſe do adjourn itſelf until Monday the fourth day of April next.

And then the Houſe adjourned until Monday the 4th day of April next, ten of the clock in the morning.

The

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR GRACE,

NO ſyſtem of government or of commerce can be ſecure or permanent which is not founded in juſtice; of this truth the hiſtory of every great empire affords ſufficient proofs, none more than the Britiſh. But however evident in theory this truth may have been at all times to thinking men, it ſeems to have had little influence upon the councils of nations 'till within theſe few years, when experience, dearly purchaſed, had removed thoſe prejudices which miſled their underſtandings, and opened their eyes to their own intereſt. From that period this kingdom has gradually raiſed her head and extended her views; her conſtitution has been reſtored, and her foreign commerce liberated from thoſe chains which held it in bondage; but ſtill the reformation was imperfect, one of the moſt important articles ſtill remained unſettled, the commercial intercourſe between Great Britain and this kingdom. Your Grace has wiſely recommended to the attention of parliament an equitable adjuſtment of that communication for the mutual advantage of both kingdoms. The Commons entered upon that difficult buſineſs with alacrity, and proſecuted it with ardor; and there is reaſon to expect that their exertions will be crowned with ſucceſs, through the wiſdom of his Majeſty's councils, and the liberal principles which have been adopted by the legiſlatures of both kingdoms. The great revolution which has taken place in America, and the conſequent changes in the commercial policy of Europe, muſt give a new direction to commerce; the ſituation of this country, ſo favorable to navigation, affords reaſonable hopes that a conſiderable portion of it may be diverted into this kingdom; but this advantage, and our late acquiſitions, however valuable, will avail us little, if we do not exert our induſtry at home, and eſtabliſh an opinion abroad abroad that our people are at peace amongſt themſelves, and obedient to the laws. This is the critical moment; if we neglect it, and do not ſeize the opportunity before the current of trade has got into a ſettled channel, we ſhall probably lament our conduct when it will be too late, and fall back into that languid, abject, and inſignificant ſtate, from which we vainly flattered ourſelves we had eſcaped. If ſuch ſhall be our misfortune, it cannot with juſtice be imputed to the neglect of the Commons; they have endeavoured with lenity, but firmneſs, to give vigor to the laws, to ſatisfy and calm the minds of the people, and to encourage them to induſtry. The happy effects of theſe meaſures are already viſible, and I truſt will ſoon reſcue the reputation of the nation from thoſe foul calumnies which have not only diſgraced her character, but obſtructed her improvement. Notwithſtanding the variety and importance of thoſe objects which have engaged the attention of the Commons, they have not been unmindful of their duty to his Majeſty or the public in other reſpects; they have made ample proviſion for the exigencies of the ſtate, for the honorable ſupport of his Majeſty's government, and for the maintenance of public credit; and though, to put an end to the ruinous practice of running in debt, they have found themſelves under a neceſſity of impoſing additional taxes to the amount of about one hundred and forty thouſand pounds a year, in order to raiſe the revenue to the level of the public expence, yet they truſt they have done it in ſuch a manner that the burden will be little felt by the people; and they rely, with confidence, on your Grace's juſtice and affection for this kingdom, that you will prevent, to the utmoſt of your power, any future deficiencies, by enjoining the ſtricteſt œconomy in every department of the ſtate; and that your Grace will repreſent to his Majeſty, in the moſt favorable light, the conduct of his faithful Commons, by whoſe command, and in whoſe name, I now preſent to your Grace, for the royal aſſent, the following bills, viz.

BY Virtue of an Order of the HOUSE OF COMMONS, I do appoint ISAAC JACKMAN to print theſe VOTES, and do order that no other Perſon preſume to print the ſame.

A meſſage from his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, by George Bernard, Eſq; Gentleman-uſher of the Black Rod:

"MR. SPEAKER,

"It is his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's pleaſure that "this houſe do attend him immediately in the Houſe "of Peers."

Accordingly Mr. Speaker, with the Houſe, went to attend his Grace.

And being returned,

Mr. Speaker reported that the houſe had attended his Grace the Lord Lieutenant in the Houſe of Peers, where his Grace was pleaſed to give the royal aſſent to the bills following:

PUBLIC BILLS.

1. An act for granting the ſum of twenty thouſand pounds to the Speaker of the Houſe of Commons, the Chancellor of the Exchequer, the Deputy Vice-Treaſurer, the Teller of the Exchequer, the Senior Commiſſioner of his Majeſty's Revenue, the Right Honorable Thomas Conolly and the Right Honorable Luke Gardiner, or any four of them, for the purpoſes therein mentioned.

2. An act for further continuing an act, intitled an act for facilitating the trade and intercourſe between this kingdom and the United States of America, and for furthering the ſaid trade and intercourſe; and for prohibiting the import of tobacco not being of the growth of the ſaid States, or of the Britiſh Plantations, or Great Britain.

3. An act for the better encouragement of trade, by regulating the payment of bounties, and exempting them from fees.

4. An

4. An act to prevent the practice of ſeducing artificers and manufacturers of this kingdom, and of exporting the ſeveral tools and utenſils made uſe of in preparing and working up the manufactures thereof, into parts beyond the ſeas.

ORDERED,

That Mr. Alexander, a member of this Houſe, have leave to go into England for ſix weeks, on particular buſineſs.

A bill for veſting certain lands therein mentioned, the eſtates of Walter Taylor, of Caſtle-Taylor, in the county of Galway, Eſq; in truſtees, for payment of debts and incumbrances affecting the ſame, according to order, was read a ſecond time and committed.

RESOLVED,

That this Houſe will, on Monday morning next, reſolve itſelf into a committee of the whole Houſe, to take the ſaid bill into conſideration.

RESOLVED,

That this Houſe, at its riſing this day, will adjourn to Monday the 11th day of April inſtant.

ORDERED,

LUNÆ, 11° DIE APRILIS, 1785.

A MOTION was made, and the queſtion being put, that it be an inſtruction to the committee to whom a bill to convert the bridewell of Nenagh, in the county of Tipperary, into a county gaol, for the reception and ſafe cuſtody of felons and other criminals, was referred, to receive a clauſe, empowering the grand jury of the Queen's County, with the conſent of the judge of aſſize, to diſpoſe of the houſe of induſtry of ſaid county to ſuch public purpoſes as may ſeem to them moſt beneficial,

It was carried in the affirmative.

A member returned upon a new writ took the oaths, made and ſubſcribed the declaration, and took and ſubſcribed the oath of abjuration, purſuant to the laws made for thoſe purpoſes.

A bill for making, widening and repairing public roads in the county of Dublin, and for repealing parts of ſeveral acts formerly made for that purpoſe, according to order, was read a ſecond time and committed.

RESOLVED,

That this Houſe will, on Monday morning next, reſolve itſelf into a committee of the whole Houſe, to take the ſaid bill into conſideration.

ORDERED,

That the bill be printed.

A meſſage from the Lords by Mr. Walker and Mr. Veſey, two of the maſters in chancery, that the Lords have agreed to an engroſſed Bill, ſent up by this Houſe, intitled an act for the better ſupport and maintenance of the Foundling Hoſpital, without any amendment; which bill the meſſengers delivered at the table, with their meſſage.

ORDERED,

That the Right Honorable Mr. Chancellor of the Exchequer do attend his Grace the Lord Lieutenant with the ſaid engroſſed bill, and deſire that the ſame may be certified into Great Britain, purſuant to the act made for that purpoſe, and then returned to this Houſe.

The Right Honorable Mr. Gardiner preſented to the Houſe, according to order, a bill to amend an act made in the ſeventeenth and eighteenth years of his preſent Majeſty, intitled an act for making and keeping in repair a circular road round the city of Dublin; which was received and read the firſt time, and ordered to be read a ſecond time to-morrow morning.

The Houſe, according to order, reſolved itſelf into a committee of the whole houſe, to take into conſideration a bill for veſting certain lands therein-mentioned, the eſtates of Walter Taylor, of Caſtle-Taylor, in the county of Galway, Eſq; in truſtees, for the payment of debts and incumbrances affecting the ſame; and after

ſome

ſome time ſpent therein Mr. Speaker reſumed the chair, and Mr. Maſon reported from the committee that they had gone through the bill, paragraph by paragraph, without any amendment.

ORDERED,

That the bill be engroſſed.

A petition of the merchants who have been nominated a council by a numerous body of traders, aſſociated under the title of the Chamber of Commerce of the city of Dublin, was preſented to the Houſe and read; ſetting forth the evil conſequences ariſing to the corn export trade of this kingdom, from the preſent excluſion of the metropolis from a ſhare of the export bounty. That Petitioners underſtand this exception is on the ground, that the corn which ſupplies the conſumption of Dublin receives an inland or coaſt carriage bounty; but petitioners repreſent, that if the principle of this partial excluſion were politic, it is an act of injuſtice ſo far as relates to the articles of peas, beans and oats, the two firſt ſcarcely receiving any carriage bounty, and the latter a bounty ſo inſignificant as to be almoſt inoperative; and ſubmitting to the Houſe that it would be wiſe and expedient to ſuffer the exporters of corn, grain, meal or flour, from Dublin, to commute the inland or coaſt carriage bounty for the export bounty; and praying relief.

That the ſaid petition do lie on the table for the peruſal of the members.

The Right Honorable Mr. Gardiner, according to order, reported from the committee appointed to take into conſideration the petition of Lord Baron Conyngham, and others, the reſolutions which the committee had directed him to report to the Houſe, which he read in

in his place, and after delivered in at the table, where the ſame were read.

ORDERED,

That leave be given to bring in a bill for raiſing the ſum of twenty thouſand pounds upon the manor of Port Dungloe, in the county of Donegal, the eſtate of the Right Honorable William Conyngham, to be expended, together with another ſum of twenty thouſand pounds granted by Parliament, in promoting the fiſheries on the weſtern coaſt of the county of Donegal, in manner therein mentioned; and that the Right Honorable Mr. Gardiner, the Right Honorable Mr. Conolly, and Mr. Arthur Wolfe, do prepare and bring in the ſame.

A petition of the tanners and butchers of the city of Dublin, and the ſuburbs thereof, praying that it may be enacted that the market for the ſale of green hides ſhall be continued at the preſent ſcite in Mary's-lane, was preſented to the Houſe and read.

ORDERED,

That the ſaid petition do lie on the table for the peruſal of the members.

ORDERED,

That leave be given to bring in a bill to regulate the trade of pawnbrokers, and to enable them to take a higher intereſt for ſums under ten pounds than ſix pounds per cent. per annum; and that Mr. Holmes, Mr. Alcock and Mr. Charles O'Neill do prepare and bring in the ſame.

A bill for the further improvement and extenſion of the fiſheries on the coaſts of this kingdom, according to order, was read a ſecond time and committed.

RESOLVED,

RESOLVED,

That this Houſe will, on Friday morning next, reſolve itſelf into a committee of the whole Houſe, to take the ſaid bill into conſideration.

ORDERED,

That leave be given to bring in a bill to diſable any perſon from being choſen a member of, or from ſitting and voting in the Houſe of Commons, who has any penſion during pleaſure, or for any number of years, from the Crown, and for furthering the independence of the Judges; and that Mr. John Forbes, Mr. Corry, Sir Edward Newenham, and the Right Honorable Mr. Brownlow, do prepare and bring in the ſame.

A petition of Charles Hamilton, of the city of Dublin, Eſq; was preſented to the Houſe and read; ſetting forth that petitioner has gone to great expence in extending and bringing to perfection the refinery of ſalt at Ringſend, near Dublin; that the ſalt made by petitioner, at his ſaid refinery, is of an extraordinary good quality, owing to the advantage derived to the ſaid works from the total excluſion of any intermixture of freſh water; that petitioner has obſerved that a bill has been introduced into this Houſe for the purpoſe of changing the courſe of the river Dodder, by turning it to the Strand, on the ſouth ſide of the Ballaſt-office Wall, by which the purity of the ſea water will be much impaired, to the great injury of petitioner; and praying that a clauſe may be introduced into the ſaid bill, empowering the commiſſioners appointed to carry the intention of ſaid bill into execution, to make ſatisfaction to petitioner for any damage he may ſuſtain thereby.

That the ſaid petition do lie on the table for the peruſal of the members.

The order that the bill for improving the port and harbour of Dublin, by regulating the Ballaſt and Pilot Offices, and for enlarging the funds applicable to the improvement of the ſaid port, be read a ſecond time on Monday the 11th of April inſt. being upon motion read,

ORDERED,

That the ſaid Bill be read a ſecond time on Wedneſday Morning next.

ORDERED,

That the proper officer do lay before this Houſe a particular account of the revenue of the Ballaſt-office, and the application of it, from the year 1748, diſtinguiſhing each year, and diſtinguiſhing the different heads of expenditure, placing ſuch part thereof as was applied in each year to the building of the Ballaſt-office Wall and Light-houſe under a ſeparate head.

And then the Houſe adjourned until to-morrow morning, ten of the clock.

MERCURIJ, 20° DIE APRILIS, 1785.

A Petition of the freeholders and farmers of the county of Wexford, whoſe names are thereunder ſubſcribed, was preſented to the Houſe and read, ſetting forth that by an act made in the twenty-firſt and twenty-ſecond years of his preſent Majeſty, a power was veſted in the chief commiſſioners of his Majeſty's revenue to appoint a crane or cranes in ſuch parts of the city of Dublin and the Liberties thereunto adjoining, as they ſhould judge expedient, at which only all corn brought to ſaid city muſt be weighed to entitle the owners to the land-carriage bounty. That in conſequence of the ſaid act the craner of the crane in the Liberty of St. Sepulchre's, to which, from its eligibility of ſituation, petitioners conſtantly reſorted with their corn, has been prohibited from weighing every kind of grain. That the ſituation of the two cranes where all ſuch corn muſt now be weighed as ſhall be entitled to bounty, is highly inconvenient to petitioners; which, together with the delay attendant upon the monopoly enjoyed by the ſaid cranes, has rendered the obtaining the ſaid bounty of ſo little conſideration, that, when the law admitted, petitioners have been frequently induced to weigh their corn at the crane of the ſaid Liberty of St. Sepulchre's, to the total loſs of the ſaid bounty; and praying that the ſaid crane may be reſtored to the power of weighing all ſuch grain as is entitled to bounty.

ORDERED,

That the ſaid petition do lie on the table for the peruſal of the members.

JOVIS, 21° DIE APRILIS, 1785.

THE Right Hon. Mr. Speaker reported that he had, purſuant to order, communicated by letter to Sir Roger Curtis, the reſolution of this Houſe of the 30th of October, 1783, to which he was pleaſed by letter to return the anſwer following:

" Ganges, at Portſmouth, March 23d, 1785.

" SIR,

" BY a letter which I this day received from Richard " Griffith, jun. Eſq; a member of the Iriſh Houſe of " Commons, I find that the letter of which the in- " cloſed is a copy has not been received by you. I " beg you to credit me, Sir, when I aſſure you, that " nothing could have happened to me which would " cauſe me greater uneaſineſs.

" Permit me, Sir, to requeſt from you, that you will " have the goodneſs to explain my conduct reſpecting

" this buſineſs, as you may ſee occaſion, ſo that I may " not appear to hold in little eſtimation an honour
" which I ſo highly value.

" I have the honour to be,
" SIR,
" Your moſt obedient,
" And moſt humble ſervant,
" ROGER CURTIS."

" To the Right Hon. EDM.
" SEX. PERY, Speaker of " the Houſe of Commons
" in Ireland."

[Copy.] " London, May 9th, 1784.

" SIR,

" I did not receive your letter of the 1ſt November,
" 1783, conveying to me the thanks of the Iriſh Houſe
" of Commons for my conduct in the defence of Gi" braltar, until a few days ago.

" It gives me much concern that my having been " abroad in his Majeſty's ſervice prevented my re" ceiving your letter ſoon enough for your communica" ting to that Houſe of Commons by which I have " been ſo highly honoured, my ſincere gratitude there-
" upon: But I yet hope, Sir, that you will in your
" goodneſs deviſe ſome mode for making it known to " my fellow ſubjects of Ireland, how very honourable
" I eſteem it to have acquired their approbation, and " to have it ſignified to me by the unanimous voice of " their repreſentatives.

" I have the honour to be,
" SIR,
" Your moſt obedient,
" And moſt humble ſervant,
" ROGER CURTIS."

" The Right Hon. EDM. SEX.
" PERY, Speaker of the " Houſe of Commons of " Ireland."

ORDERED,

ORDERED,

That the committee appointed to take into conſideration a bill for continuing and amending the ſeveral laws relating to the repairs of the road leading from Dublin to Mullingar, and for more effectually enabling the truſtees thereof to widen the narrow parts leading from Chapel-izod to Dublin, on both ſides of the river Liffey, be empowered to receive a clauſe to enable the ſurveyor, on diſcovery of any breaches in the bridges, arches or ſewers on the road, to make an immediate temporary repair, without waiting for an order of board, provided the expence be limitted to forty ſhillings, and afterwards accounted for on oath before payment ordered.

ORDERED,

That the ſaid committee be empowered to receive a clauſe, requiring the ſurveyor to ride over the road once at leaſt every month in the year, to inſpect breaches, remove nuiſances, and report ſame, as alſo a true ſtate of the repairs of the road, at every board.

ORDERED,

JOVIS, 28° DIE APRILIS, 1785.

THE Houſe, according to order, reſolved itſelf into a committee of the whole Houſe, to take into conſideration a bill for preventing vexatious injunctions to ſtay proceedings at law, and for giving coſts to defendants in courts of equity in certain caſes; and after ſome time ſpent therein Mr. Speaker reſumed the chair, and the Right Hon. Mr. Rowley reported from the committee that they had gone through the bill, paragraph by paragraph, without any amendment.

ORDERED,

That the bill be engroſſed.

ORDERED,

That Mr. Neſbitt, a member of this Houſe, have leave of abſence for a fortnight, on particular buſineſs.

An engroſſed bill from the Lords, entitled an act to amend an act paſſed in the twelfth year of his late Ma-jeſty George the firſt, entitled an act for better regulating the office of ſheriffs, and for aſcertaining their fees, and the fees for ſuing their patents and paſſing their accounts, and for extending the proviſions thereof, according to order, was read a ſecond time and committed.

RESOLVED,

That this Houſe will, to-morrow morning, reſolve itſelf into a committee of the whole Houſe, to take the ſaid engroſſed bill into conſideration.

The Houſe, according to order, reſolved itſelf into a committee of the whole Houſe, to take into conſideration a bill to amend and explain an act for the improvement of the inland fiſheries of this kingdom; and after ſome time ſpent therein Mr. Speaker reſumed the chair, and the Hon. William John Skeffington reported from the committee that they had made ſome progreſs in the matter to them referred, and that he was directed by the committee to deſire leave to ſit again.

RESOLVED,

That this Houſe will, to-morrow morning, reſolve itſelf into a committee of the whole Houſe, to take the ſaid bill into further conſideration.

The order of the day for receiving the report of the committee of the whole Houſe, appointed to take into conſideration the ſtate of the Royal Hoſpital at Kilmainham, being upon motion read,

ORDERED,

That Major Doyle do make the ſaid report.

Major Doyle, according to order, reported from the committee of the whole Houſe, appointed to take into conſideration the ſtate of the Royal Hoſpital near Kilmainham, the reſolutions of the ſaid committee, which he

he read in his place, and after delivered in at the table, where the ſame were read, and are as follow:

1. RESOLVED,

That it is the opinion of this committee, that the army on the Iriſh eſtabliſhments being equally employed in the general defence of the empire, the ſoldiers of each, when worn out and diſabled in the common cauſe, are equally meritorious objects of the royal bounty and the generous proviſion of parliament, as far as the circumſtances of their reſpective countries will admit.

2. RESOLVED,

That it appears to this committee, that the allowance at preſent made to the out-penſioners of Kilmainham Hoſpital is very diſproportionate to that granted to the out-penſioners of Chelſea Hoſpital, and is become (from the advanced price of proviſions) inadequate to the ſupport of thoſe helpleſs, but deſerving objects.

3. RESOLVED,

That it appears by the plan produced to this committee (as approved of by the governors of the Royal Hoſpital of Kilmainham) that a ſum, not exceeding four thouſand pounds, is neceſſary to enable the governors of this charity to make a more equal and comfortable proviſion for thoſe diſabled veterans.

4. RESOLVED, therefore,

That it is the opinion of this committee, that an humble addreſs be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, praying that he will lay before his Majeſty the humble deſire of this Houſe, that his Majeſty will be graciouſly pleaſed to order the ſum of four thouſand pounds to be paid to the governors of the Royal Hoſpital of Kilmainham, to enable them to carry into into effect the plan for the further relief of the difabled and worn-out ſoldiers upon the out-penſion of ſaid Hoſpital, and that this Houſe will make good the ſame.

The firſt reſolution being read a ſecond time, an amendment was propoſed to be made thereto, by inſerting after the word the, and before the word Iriſh, the words Britiſh and.

And the queſtion being put, that the words propoſed ſtand part of the reſolution,

It was carried in the affirmative.

And the queſtion being put, that the Houſe do agree in the reſolution, ſo amended,

It was carried in the affirmative.

And the reſolution, ſo amended, is as follows:

RESOLVED,

That it is the opinion of this committee, that the army on the Britiſh and Iriſh eſtabliſhments being equally employed in the general defence of the empire, the ſoldiers of each, when worn-out and diſabled in the common cauſe, are equally meritorious objects of the royal bounty and the generous proviſion of parliament, as far as the circumſtances of their reſpective countries will admit.

The ſecond, third and fourth reſolutions being ſeverally read a ſecond time, were, on the queſtion being thereupon ſeverally put, agreed to by the Houſe.

RESOLVED,

That an humble addreſs be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, praying that he will lay before his Majeſty the humble deſire of this Houſe, that his Majeſty will be graciouſly pleaſed to order the ſum of four thouſand

thouſand pounds to be paid to the governors of the Royal Hoſpital of Kilmainham, to enable them to carry into effect a plan for the further relief of the diſabled and worn-out ſoldiers upon the out-penſion of ſaid Hoſpital, and that this Houſe will make good the ſame.

ORDERED,

That the ſaid addreſs be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant by ſuch members of this Houſe as are of his Majeſty's moſt honorable privy council.

The order that this Houſe be called over on Thurſday morning next, and that all members then in the kingdom do attend, on pain of incurring the cenſure of this Houſe, being upon motion read,

ORDERED,

That the ſaid order be diſcharged.

ORDERED,

That this Houſe be called over on Thurſday the 5th of May next, and that all members then in the kingdom do attend, on pain of incurring the cenſure of this Houſe.

A motion was made, that the Houſe do reſolve itſelf into a committee of the whole Houſe, for the following purpoſe: To prepare a clauſe or clauſes to be inſerted in the bill to be brought in by the committee appointed to prepare and bring in a bill for the more equal repreſentation of the people in Parliament, the better to promote due population in ſmall contracted or decayed cities, towns corporate, and boroughs; whereby it ſhall be provided that any city, town corporate or borough returning members to ſerve in Parliament, which ſhall not, twelve months before the next general election, contain, duly regiſtered, a number of reſident proteſtant leaſehold houſekeepers, not leſs in Leinſter, Munſter or Connaught than ſeventy, nor leſs in Ulſter than one hundred and forty, in each city, town corporate or borough reſpectively, ſhall return to Parliament one repreſentative only on the next general election; and ſhall continue on every ſubſequent election to return one repreſentative, and no more, until ſuch number as aforeſaid ſhall be compleated; and that as ſoon as ſuch number ſhall be compleated, then the ſaid city, town corporate or borough ſhall again return two repreſentatives to Parliament, and ſhall continue ſo to do as long as, and no longer, than it ſhall retain the aforeſaid number compleat.

And the queſtion being thereupon put,

It paſſed in the negative.

The order, that this Houſe do, on Friday morning next, reſolve itſelf into a committee of the whole Houſe, to take into further conſideration a bill for amending and more effectually carrying into execution the ſeveral laws relating to the regiſtering of deeds and wills in the regiſtry office of this kingdom, and for the better regulating and conducting the buſineſs of the ſaid office, being upon motion read,

RESOLVED,

That this Houſe will, on Monday morning next, reſolve itſelf into the ſaid committee.

And then the Houſe adjourned until to-morrow morning, ten of the clock.

That the bill, with the amendment, be engroſſed.

A bill for confirming the partition, and eſtabliſhing an agreement made between Robert Edmiſton, of Berwick upon Tweed, Eſq; and Mary Edmiſton, otherwiſe Barker, his wife; John Haſſard, of Toam, in the county of Cavan, Eſq; and Samuela Haſſard, otherwiſe Barker, his wife; Henry Bolton, of Ballycanvan, in the county of Waterford, Eſq; and Elizabeth Bolton, otherwiſe Barker, his wife, of the undivided eſtate of the late Francis Barker, of the city of Waterford, Eſq; and to enable them to make long leaſes of ſuch parts of ſaid eſtates as lie within the Liberties of the county of the city of Waterford, according to order, was read a ſecond time and committed.

RESOLVED,

That this Houſe will, on Monday morning next, reſolve itſelf into a committee of the whole Houſe, to take the ſaid bill into conſideration.

An

An engroſſed bill for the compleating and effectually lighting and watching Rutland Square, and for the better ſupport and maintenance of the hoſpital for the relief of poor lying-in women in Great Britain-ſtreet, Dublin, and for other purpoſes therein mentioned, was read the third time.

RESOLVED,

That the bill do paſs, and that the title be, an act for the compleating and effectually lighting and watching Rutland Square, and for the better ſupport and maintenance of the hoſpital for the relief of poor lying-in women in Great Britain-ſtreet, Dublin, and for other purpoſes therein mentioned.

ORDERED,

That Mr. Frederick Trench do carry the ſaid bill to the Lords, and deſire their concurrence.

An engroſſed bill for the further improvement and extenſion of the fiſheries on the coaſts of this kingdom, was read the third time.

RESOLVED,

That the bill do paſs, and that the title be, an act for the further improvement and extenſion of the fiſheries on the coaſts of this kingdom.

ORDERED,

That the Right Honorable Mr. Conyngham do carry the ſaid bill to the Lords, and deſire their concurrence.

A petition of the company of undertakers of the Grand Canal was preſented to the Houſe and read, ſetting forth that the commiſſioners for promoting and carrying on an inland navigation, having been impowered by parliament to grant an aid to private undertakers of one-ſixth part of the ſum neceſſary for compleating the ſame, in purſuance of ſaid power, entered into an agreement with petitioners conformably thereto; that petitioners have already expended a ſum exceeding 14,000l. and when the canal ſhall be compleated to Monaſterevan their expenditure will be equal to upwards of 24,000l. of which petitioners, under ſaid agreement, are intitled to the ſum of 4000l. and praying that a fund may be provided for payment of ſaid ſum to petitioners, on proof of the expenditure of the ſum of 24,000l. before the commiſſioners of Impreſt Accounts.

ORDERED,

That the ſaid petition be referred to the conſideration of a committee.

And a committee was appointed accordingly.

The Houſe, according to order, reſolved itſelf into a committee of the whole Houſe, to take into further conſideration a bill to explain and amend an act paſſed in the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of his preſent Majeſty, entitled an act for aſcertaining the qualifications of ſuch perſons as ſhall take out commiſſions of the peace for counties at large; and after ſome time ſpent therein Mr. Speaker reſumed the chair, and Sir Hugh Hill reported from the committee that they had gone through the bill, paragraph by paragraph, without any amendment.

ORDERED,

That the bill be engroſſed.

A bill to repeal an act, entitled an act for regulating meaſures in buying and ſelling corn, and for promoting huſbandry, according to order, was read a ſecond time and committed.

RESOLVED,

That this Houſe will, on Wedneſday morning next, reſolve itſelf into a committee of the whole Houſe, to take the ſaid bill into conſideration.

ORDERED,

That the proper officer do lay before this Houſe an account of the total net produce of the linen funds received by the truſtees of the linen board, together with the total amount of premiums offered by the linen board to the four provinces of Leinſter, Ulſter, Munſter and Connaught, for the encouragement of the linen manufacture, diſtinguiſhing thoſe offered to each province reſpectively, and the ſums actually paid to each province on account of ſaid premiums, from the 25th of December, 1781, to the 29th of September, 1784, diſtinguiſhing each year.

The order of the day, for this Houſe to reſolve itſelf into a committee of the whole Houſe, to take into conſideration a bill to diſable any perſon from being choſen a member of, or from ſitting and voting in the Houſe of Commons, who has any penſion during pleaſure, or for any number of years, from the crown, and for further ſecuring the independence of the judges, being upon motion read,

A motion was made, and the queſtion being put, that the Speaker do now leave the chair,

It paſſed in the negative.

Sir Hugh Hill, according to order, reported from the committee of the whole Houſe, appointed to take into further conſideration the moſt effectual method of continuing and compleating the inland navigation of this kingdom, the reſolutions which the committee had directed him to report to the Houſe, which he read in his place, and after delivered in at the table, where the ſame were read, and are as follow:

1. RESOLVED,

That it is the opinion of this committee, that the funds appropriated to promote the inland navigations, by being diſtracted among many objects, are rendered inſufficient to complete any, and ought therefore to be applied applied to only one work at a time, and in the firſt inſtance to that which is the moſt important, and likely to prove moſt generally beneficial to the kingdom.

2. Resolved,

That it is the opinion of this committee, that as the Grand Canal is now compleated from Dublin to the river Barrow, at Monaſterevan, the connecting it with the Shannon, and making the Shannon navigable from the point of connection up to Lough Allen, and down to the deep water below Limerick, will be the moſt beneficial inland navigation, and ought to be compleated the firſt.

3. Reſolved,

That it appears to this committee, that the navigation board had, on the 25th of December laſt, overdrawn their funds in the ſum of twenty-ſix thouſand two hundred and eighty-four pounds ſeventeen ſhillings and one farthing, and iſſued warrants on the treaſury for the ſame.

4. Reſolved,

That it is the opinion of this committee that ſuch overdrawing was, in ſeveral inſtances, contrary to law; but inaſmuch as ſome monies have been expended by individuals in purſuance thereof, without being aware of the illegality of the grants, it will be expedient that a fund ſhould be provided for paying ſo much of the ſaid warrants reſpectively as ſhall have been expended previous to the 1ſt of June, 1785, and as the commiſſioners of impreſt accounts ſhall certify the juſt expenditure of on the ſeveral navigations for which ſuch ſums were granted, and alſo for the payment of ſuch warrants as have been iſſued to companies of undertakers, purſuant to their contracts with the navigation board.

5. Reſolved,

That it is the opinion of this committee, that in the accounting for ſuch expenditure, no deduction ſhall be made or allowance given by the ſaid commiſſioners for for any premium, diſcount or intereſt, which ſhall exceed legal intereſt for the ſame, from the time of diſcounting each warrant and applying the amount thereof, until the time the ſame ſhall be paid.

6. RESOLVED,

That it is the opinion of this committee that all powers given by law to the ſaid navigation board, or commiſſioners for promoting and carrying on inland navigations, ought to ceaſe when their preſent duties ſhall expire on the 25th of March, 1786, and that their corporation ſhould be diſſolved on that day, and no grants whatſoever be made by them from henceforward, except for ſalaries and charges attending their Houſe.

7. RESOLVED,

That it is the opinion of this committee, that the ſaid debt ſhould be paid by debentures to be iſſued, carrying an intereſt after the rate of four pounds per cent per annum.

8. RESOLVED,

That it is the opinion of this committee, that one thouſand five hundred pounds per annum of the firſt produce of the ſaid funds be applied to pay the intereſt of ſuch debentures, and to create a ſinking fund, for the purpoſe of paying off the principal of the ſaid debt.

9. RESOLVED,

That it is the opinion of this committee, that the moſt effectual mode of compleating any navigations to which the ſaid funds ſhall be as aforeſaid appropriated, will be to grant them ſubject to the ſaid debts in the order in which they ſhall be ſo appropriated, for a term to be agreed upon by Parliament, to any company of undertakers who will engage and give ſecurity to complete the ſame within a limited time, by advancing their own money for the purpoſe, under ſuch conditions and reſtrictions, and with ſuch right of toll, as ſhall be approved by Parliament.

10. RESOLVED,

That it is the opinion of this committee, that before any ſuch agreement ſhall be made proper perſons ſhould be appointed by Parliament to employ one or more ſkilful engineers to aſcertain the beſt line of communication between the Grand Canal and the Shannon, and to make ſurveys and eſtimates thereof, and of the navigation from the point of junction with the Shannon up to the collieries at Lough Allen, and down to the deep-water below Limerick; and alſo that the ſaid engineer or engineers do make a ſurvey and eſtimate for making the river Barrow navigable from Monaſterevan to the tide-water; and alſo of the river Suir from Carrick up to Clonmel; ſuch ſurveys and eſtimates to be laid before this Houſe the firſt day of the next ſeſſion.

11. RESOLVED,

That it is the opinion of this committee, that the expence thereof ſhould be defrayed out of the produce of the tillage duties this year.

12. RESOLVED,

That it appears to this committee, that the company of undertakers to make the Shannon navigable from Limerick to Killaloe, notwithſtanding they have made ſome progreſs, and ſpent eight thouſand five hundred and twenty pounds four ſhillings and two-pence of their own money thereon, are unable to complete the work, and that the navigation of that part of the ſaid river ought to be veſted in ſuch company as ſhall undertake as aforeſaid, upon ſuch terms as may be agreed on with the ſaid Shannon company.

13. RESOLVED,

That it is the opinion of this committee, that the granting the ſeveral navigations of this kingdom which are not yet compleated, and whereon public money ney has been expended, to ſuch companies of undertakers as will engage to complete them within limited times, under ſuch conditions and reſtrictions, and with ſuch right of tolls, and ſuch covenants for repairs as may be agreed on by Parliament, will be the moſt effectual means of compleating the ſame, and of inſuring their being kept in conſtant order.

14. RESOLVED,

That it is the opinion of this committee, that proper perſons ſhould be appointed by Parliament to receive propoſals from, and treat with any companies for the above purpoſes, and to lay the ſame before this Houſe the firſt day of the next ſeſſion.

15. RESOLVED,

That it is the opinion of this committee, that the Newry navigation ſtands upon a footing totally different from every other navigation of this kingdom, being actually compleated from one end to the other, and conſequently that it is uſeleſs and unneceſſary to invite undertakers to make propoſitions for the completion of it.

16. RESOLVED,

That it is the opinion of this committee, that the beſt method of managing, ſuperintending and governing the ſaid navigation will be by a limited number of truſtees to be appointed for that purpoſe, who ſhall be impowered to direct the receipt and diſburſements of the tolls, to have the direction of the neceſſary repairs, to appoint from time to time a treaſurer, lock-keepers, and other neceſſary officers, and to lay an annual account before this Houſe of the amount of the receipt and expenditure of the ſaid tolls.

17. RESOLVED,

17. RESOLVED,

That it is the opinion of this committee, that the ſaid truſtees ſhall conſiſt of his Grace the Lord Primate, the governor or lieutenants and cuſtodes retulorum of the counties of Down and Armagh, the only counties through which the ſaid navigation paſſes, the Lord Biſhop of Dromore, the knights of the ſhire, and all the members of Parliament for the ſeveral and reſpective boroughs in the ſaid two counties, the ſeveral lords of manors through which the ſaid canal paſſes, and their ſeneſchals, and the collector of Newry, all for the time being.

And the firſt reſolution being read a ſecond time, was, on the queſtion being thereupon put, agreed to by the Houſe.

A motion was made, and the queſtion put, that the Houſe do now adjourn,

It paſſed in the negative.

The ſecond reſolution being read a ſecond time, an amendment was propoſed to be made therein, by expunging the words, that as the Grand Canal is now compleated from Dublin to the river Barrow, at Monaſterevan, the connecting it; and by inſerting, inſtead thereof, the following words: That ſuch parts of the Funds, not exceeding ten thouſand pounds, as may be neceſſary to effect the compleating the navigation of the river Barrow from Athy to the tide-water; and of the river Nore, from its fall into the Barrow up to Kilkenny; and of the river Suir, from its junction with the Barrow up to Clonmel, be applied, in the firſt inſtance, to thoſe purpoſes; and that the ſaid Funds be applied, in the next inſtance, to effecting a navigation connecting the Grand Canal.

And

And the queſtion being put, that the ſaid laſt-mentioned words ſtand part of the reſolution,

It was carried in the affirmative.

And the queſtion being put, that the words, that as the Grand Canal is now compleated from Dublin to the river Barrow, at Monaſterevan, the connecting it; and alſo the words, will be the moſt beneficial inland navigation, and ought to be compleated the firſt, be expunged,

It was carried in the affirmative.

An amendment was propoſed to be made to the ſaid reſolution, by adding thereto the words, and that the ſaid funds be applied, in the next place, to compleating the navigation from the Drumglaſs Collieries to the ſea.

And the queſtion being put, that the ſaid words ſtand part of the reſolution,

It paſſed in the negative.

Then the queſtion being put, that the Houſe do agree in the ſaid reſolution, ſo amended,

It was carried in the affirmative.

And the reſolution, ſo amended, is as follows:

RESOLVED,

That it is the opinion of this committee, that ſuch part of the funds, not exceeding ten thouſand pounds, as may be neceſſary to effect the compleating the navigation of the river Barrow from Athy to the tide-water; and of the river Nore, from its fall into the Barrow up to Kilkenny; and of the river Suir, from its junction with the Barrow up to Clonmel, be applied, in the firſt inſtance, to thoſe purpoſes; and that the ſaid funds be applied, in the next inſtance, to effecting a navigation connecting the Grand Canal with the Shannon, and making the Shannon navigable from the point of connection up to Lough Allen, and down to the deep-water below Limerick.

The third reſolution being read a ſecond time, was, on the queſtion being thereupon put, agreed to by the Houſe.

The fourth reſolution being read a ſecond time, an amendment was propoſed to be made therein, by expunging the words, as ſhall have been expended previous to the firſt of June, 1785, and.

And the queſtion being put, that the ſaid words ſtand part of the reſolution,

It paſſed in the negative.

And the reſolution, ſo amended, was agreed to by the Houſe, and is as follows:

Resolved,

That it is the opinion of this committee, that ſuch overdrawing was, in ſeveral inſtances, contrary to law; but inaſmuch as ſome monies have been expended by individuals in purſuance thereof, without being aware of the illegality of the grants, it will be expedient that a fund ſhould be provided for paying ſo much of the ſaid warrants reſpectively as the commiſſioners of impreſt accounts ſhall certify the juſt expenditure of on the ſeveral navigations for which ſuch ſums were granted; and alſo for the payment of ſuch warrants as have been iſſued to companies of undertakers, purſuant to their contracts with the navigation board.

The fifth, ſixth, ſeventh and eighth reſolutions being ſeverally read a ſecond time, were, on the queſtion being thereupon ſeverally put, agreed to by the Houſe.

The

The ninth reſolution being read a ſecond time, an amendment was propoſed to be made therein, by expunging the words, their own money for the purpoſe, and inſerting in their room the words, or expending of their own money, in the proportion of five parts for one, which they ſhall receive out of the ſaid funds.

And the queſtion being put, that the ſaid laſt-mentioned words ſtand part of the reſolution,

It was carried in the affirmative.

And the queſtion being put, that the words, their own money for the purpoſe, ſtand part of the reſolution,

It paſſed in the negative.

And the reſolution, ſo amended, was agreed to by the Houſe, and is as follows:

RESOLVED,

That it is the opinion of this committee, that the moſt effectual mode of compleating any navigations to which the ſaid funds ſhall be as aforeſaid appropriated, will be to grant them ſubject to the ſaid debts in the order in which they ſhall be ſo appropriated, for a term to be agreed upon by Parliament, to any company of undertakers who will engage and give ſecurity to complete the ſame within a limited time, by advancing and expending of their own money, in the proportion of five parts for one, which they ſhall receive out of the ſaid funds, under ſuch conditions and reſtrictions, and with ſuch right of toll, as ſhall be approved by Parliament.

The tenth reſolution being read a ſecond time, an amendment was propoſed to be made therein, by expunging the words, beſt line, and inſerting in their room the the words, northern and ſouthern lines; and expunging the words, a ſurvey and eſtimate, and inſerting in their room the words, ſurveys and eſtimates.

And the queſtion being put ſeverally, that the words northern and ſouthern lines; as alſo the words, ſurveys and eſtimates, ſtand part of the reſolution,

It was carried in the affirmative.

And the queſtion being ſeverally put, that the words, beſt line; as alſo the words, a ſurvey and eſtimate, ſtand part of the reſolution,

It paſſed in the negative.

And the reſolution, ſo amended, was agreed to by the Houſe, and is as follows:

RESOLVED,

That it is the opinion of this committee, that before any ſuch agreement ſhall be made, proper perſons ſhould be appointed by Parliament to employ one or more ſkilful engineers to aſcertain the northern and ſouthern lines of communication between the Grand Canal and the Shannon, and to make ſurveys and eſtimates thereof, and of the navigation from the point of junction with the Shannon up to the collieries at Lough Allen, and down to the deep-water below Limerick; and alſo that the ſaid engineer or engineers do make ſurveys and eſtimates for making the river Barrow navigable from Monaſtereven to the tide-water; and alſo of the river Suir from Carrick up to Clonmel; ſuch ſurveys and eſtimates to be laid before this Houſe the firſt day of the next ſeſſion.

The eleventh and twelfth reſolutions being ſeverally read a ſecond time, were, upon the queſtion being thereupon ſeverally put, agreed to by the Houſe.

The

The thirteenth reſolution being read a ſecond time, an amendment was propoſed to be made therein, by inſerting after the word ſeveral, and before the word navigations, the word other.

And the queſtion being put, that the word other ſtand part of the ſaid reſolution,

It was carried in the affirmative.

And the reſolution, ſo amended, was agreed to by the Houſe, and is as follows:

RESOLVED,

That it is the opinion of this committee, that the granting the ſeveral other navigations of this kingdom which are not yet compleated, and whereon public money has been expended, to ſuch companies of undertakers as will engage to complete them within limited times, under ſuch conditions and reſtrictions, and with ſuch right of tolls, and ſuch covenants for repairs, as may be agreed on by Parliament, will be the moſt effectual means of compleating the ſame, and of inſuring their being kept in conſtant order.

The fourteenth reſolution being read a ſecond time, was, on the queſtion being thereupon put, agreed to by the Houſe.

ORDERED,

That the ſaid report be taken into further conſideration on next Monday ſeven-night.

And then the Houſe adjourned until Monday morning next, ten of the clock.

The Houſe being informed that Mr. James Corry, ſecretary to the truſtees of the linen and hempen manufactures, attended at the door, he was called in, and at the bar preſented to the Houſe, purſuant to their order,

An account of the total net produce of the linen funds received by the truſtees of the linen board, together with the total amount of premiums offered by the linen board to the four provinces of Leinſter, Ulſter, Munſter and Connaught, for the encouragement of the linen manufacture, diſtinguiſhing thoſe offered to each province reſpectively, and the ſums actually paid to each each province on account of ſaid premiums, from the 25th day of December, 1781, to the 29th September, 1784, diſtinguiſhing each year.

The title whereof was read, and the account ordered to lie on the table for the peruſal of the members.

A petition of the there-undernamed proprietors of collieries, and lands cloſe adjacent to them, in the county of Tyrone, was preſented to the Houſe and read, ſetting forth that the collieries of Tyrone were the chief objects which induced Parliament to grant the large ſums of money which have been expended in compleating the Newry Canal, and praying that the proprietors of the ſaid collieries may not be excluded from a ſhare in the management of the ſaid navigation.

That the ſaid petition do lie on the table for the peruſal of the members.

A petition of the there-underſigned merchants, linen-drapers and traders, of Coal Iſland, Dungannon, in the neighbourhood thereof, was preſented to the Houſe and read, ſetting forth that the proſperity of the ſouthern parts of the county of Tyrone depends much on the proper management of the Newry Canal, and praying that the noblemen and gentlemen of the county of Tyrone may not be excluded from, but have an adequate ſhare, as heretofore, in the direction of the ſaid canal.

That the ſaid petition do lie on the table for the peruſal of the members.

Sir John Parnell, according to order, reported from the committee of the whole Houſe, to whom it was referred to take into conſideration the ſupply granted to his his Majeſty, as alſo his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's ſpeech, the reſolution which the committee had directed him to report to the Houſe, which he read in his place, and after delivered in at the table, where the ſame was read, and is as follows:

RESOLVED,

That it is the opinion of this committee, that the ſupply granted to his Majeſty for promoting and carrying on inland navigations in Ireland, be a ſum not exceeding 7000l. per annum, for the term of twenty-one years, from the 25th day of March, 1786.

And the ſaid reſolution being read a ſecond time, was, upon the queſtion being thereupon put, agreed to by the Houſe.

RESOLVED,

That this Houſe will, on next Thurſday fortnight, reſolve itſelf into a committee of the whole Houſe, to conſider of ways and means for raiſing the ſaid ſupply granted to his Majeſty.

Sir John Parnell, according to order, reported from the committee of the whole Houſe, appointed to take into conſideration a bill for granting the ſums of 20,000l. 5000l. and 4000l. to certain truſtees, and for promoting the ſeveral manufactures therein mentioned, that they had gone through the bill, paragraph by paragraph, and made ſeveral amendments therein, which he read in his place, and after delivered in at the table, with the amendments; and the amendments were once read throughout, and then a ſecond time; and the queſtion being thereupon ſeverally put, were agreed to by the Houſe; and ſeveral amendments were made in the ſaid bill by the Houſe.

ORDERED,

That the bill, with the amendments, be engroſſed.

OF THE

House of Commons.

JOVIS, 30° DIE JUNII, 1785.

THE Houſe, according to order, reſolved itſelf into a committee of the whole Houſe, to take into conſideration an engroſſed bill from the Lords, entitled an act for the more effectually raiſing a ſufficient ſum of money for diſcharging the debts and incumbrances affecting certain lands in the counties of Mayo and Donegal, the eſtates of the Right Honorable Arthur Saunders, Earl of Arran, and the Honorable Arthur Saunders Gore, commonly called Lord Viſcount Sudley, and for the payment of the debts now due by them reſpectively, and for other purpoſes; and after ſome time ſpent therein Mr. Speaker reſumed the chair, and Sir Anneſley Stewart reported from the committee that they had gone through the bill, paragraph by paragraph, without any amendment.

ORDERED,

That the ſaid bill be now read the third time.

Then the ſaid engroſſed bill, according to order, was read the third time.

RESOLVED,

That the bill do paſs.

ORDERED,

That Sir Anneſley Stewart do carry the ſaid bill to the Lords, and acquaint them that this Houſe hath agreed thereto without any amendment.

A petition of the undernamed inhabitants of the city of Cork was preſented to the Houſe and read, ſetting forth that the draught of a bill, now before the Houſe, for building a bridge over the northern channel of the river Lee, in the city of Cork, had been, before its being preſented to the Houſe, unanimouſly approved of by the mayor, ſheriffs and freemen of the ſaid city, and that petitioners believe the ſame will operate in the faireſt and moſt liberal manner for the public good; and that if it ſhould ſeem neceſſary to aſcertain a particular ſite for ſaid bridge, the end of Saint Patrick-ſtreet appears to petitioners to be the only eligible place for the ſame; and ſubmitting the premiſes to the conſideration of the Houſe.

That the ſaid petition do lie on the table for the peruſal of the members.

A petition of the merchants, traders and principal inhabitants of the city of Limerick was preſented to the Houſe and read, ſetting forth, that from what has tranſpired relative to the propoſitions ſubmitted to the Parliament of Great Britain, for adjuſting a commercial intercourſe between that kingdom and Ireland, petitioners greatly fear they cannot anſwer the propoſed end; end; on the contrary, petitioners have reaſon to fear that the ſame, if adopted, would prove injurious to the manufactures of this country, and deſtroy that commerce with other nations to which ſhe has a right as a free and independent kingdom; and petitioners conceive that the fourth propoſition contains matter derogatory to the independence of the legiſlature of Ireland; and praying that the ſaid propoſitions may, when laid before the Houſe, be printed and circulated through the kingdom, and that the deciſion of them may be deferred until the next ſeſſion of parliament.

That the ſaid petition do lie on the table for the peruſal of the members.

A petition of Stephen Wybrants, Eſq; and other inhabitants of Granby Row, in the city of Dublin, was preſented to the Houſe and read, ſetting forth that the petitioners, in conjunction with other proprietors of houſes ſurrounding the garden ground of the Lying-in Hoſpital, have expended, or made for ever chargeable on their properties, a ſum of 9000l. for the health, ornament and ſecurity of the city of Dublin; that there are certain nuiſances, the removal of which is neceſſary to complete the ſaid ſquare and the avenues thereto, and praying that the commiſſioners for widening the ſtreets may be empowered to appropriate ſuch ſum as may be found neceſſary for the aforeſaid purpoſes, (not exceeding 1500l.) out of the additional duty on coals.

That the ſaid petition be referred to the conſideration of a committee.

And a committee was appointed accordingly.

ORDERED,

That leave be given to bring in a bill for the better carrying into execution the ſeveral laws for providing a maintenance maintenance for Pariſh Clerks, and for other purpoſes; and that Sir Henry Hartſtonge and the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary of State do prepare and bring in the ſame.

Sir Henry Hartſtonge preſented to the Houſe, according to order, a bill for the better carrying into execution the ſeveral laws for providing a maintenance for Pariſh Clerks, and for other purpoſes; which was received and read the firſt time, and ordered to be read a ſecond time forthwith.

Then the ſaid bill, according to order, was read a ſecond time and committed.

RESOLVED,

That this Houſe will, to-morrow morning, reſolve itſelf into a committee of the whole Houſe, to take the ſaid bill into conſideration.

The Houſe, according to order, proceeded to take into further conſideration the report from the committee appointed to enquire into the ſtate of the gaols and priſons in this kingdom.

And the firſt and ſecond reſolutions being ſeverally read a ſecond time, were, upon the queſtion being thereupon ſeverally put, agreed to by the Houſe.

The third Reſolution being read a ſecond time, and the queſtion being put, that the Houſe do agree with the committee in the ſaid reſolution,

It was carried in the affirmative.

The fourth, fifth, ſixth, ſeventh and eighth reſolutions being ſeverally read a ſecond time, were, upon the queſtion being thereupon ſeverally put, agreed to by the Houſe.

The

The ninth reſolution being read a ſecond time, and the queſtion being put, that the houſe do agree with the committee in the ſaid reſolution,

It was carried in the affirmative.

The tenth and eleventh reſolutions being ſeverally read a ſecond time, were, on the queſtion being thereupon ſeverally put, agreed to by the Houſe.

And the ſaid reſolutions are as follow:

1. RESOLVED,

That it is the opinion of this committee, that the want of a proper and ſufficient priſon for the reception and ſafe cuſtody of perſons arreſted on civil proceſs in the city of Dublin, is a grievance of a very ſubſtantial and extenſive nature, and calls for immediate redreſs.

2. RESOLVED,

That it is the opinion of this committee, that the police and management of the public gaols and priſons throughout this kingdom is ſtill extremely defective, notwithſtanding the different laws that have been enacted to correct the abuſes and redreſs the grievances ſo generally and ſo juſtly complained of.

3. RESOLVED,

That it is the opinion of this committee, that inſpectors of priſons ſhould be appointed to ſuperintend the general management of all gaols, houſes of correction, and other places of confinement in this kingdom, and to carry fully into effect the ſeveral laws enacted for the regulation of the ſame, without however in any manner interfering with the authority of ſheriffs or grand juries.

4. RESOLVED,

That it is the opinion of this committee, that the grand juries of each and every county, county of a city, or county of a town, in Ireland (the county of the city of Dublin excepted) ſhould be empowered, at every Spring aſſizes, to appoint the clergyman who diſtributes the priſoners bread, or, if they ſhall think proper, the ſurgeon or phyſician reſident in the town where ſuch gaol is ſituated, to be inſpector of the gaol aforeſaid, and alſo of any bridewell or houſe of correction within ſaid county, city or town; and that ſaid inſpector ſhould be required to obſerve the ſeveral regulations herein-after mentioned, and to ſee them fully carried into effect.

5. RESOLVED,

That it is the opinion of this committee, that in caſe the ſaid inſpector ſhall make it appear to the grand jury that he hath duly fulfilled the ſeveral duties herein-after required, the grand jury aforeſaid ſhall be empowered to preſent, at each aſſizes, a ſum not exceeding ten pounds, as a compenſation for his trouble and attention, otherwiſe not.

6. RESOLVED,

That it is the opinion of this committee, that the grand jury of the county of the city of Dublin ſhould, at every Hilary term, be empowered to appoint a proper perſon as inſpector of the different priſons, marſhalſeas, bridewells, places of confinement and houſes of correction within ſaid city; and likewiſe to preſent a ſum, not exceeding one hundred and fifty pounds per annum, on condition of his duly fulfilling the ſeveral duties herein-after directed; and alſo that he ſhould report the ſtate of the ſeveral priſons or places of confinement within the ſaid city to the court of King's Bench on the firſt day of Michaelmas and Trinity terms.

7. RESOLVED,

That it is the opinion of this committee, that the chaplain or ordinary of Newgate, in the city of Dublin, lin, ſhould read morning prayers to ſuch of the priſoners as are proteſtants every Sunday in the year ; that he ſhould viſit the ſaid priſon three times a week at leaſt ; that at ſuch viſit he ſhould go into every room in the priſon, and converſe with and exhort ſuch of the priſoners as are willing to liſten to his admonitions.

8. RESOLVED,

That it is the opinion of this committee, that the ſurgeon of the priſons in the city of Dublin ſhould be required to viſit every gaol within the city three times a week at leaſt, and that he ſhould take care that all priſoners who are indiſpoſed ſhould be furniſhed with proper medicines, and other ſuſtenance, if neceſſary.

9. RESOLVED,

That it is the opinion of this committee, that a proper perſon ſhould be appointed inſpector general of priſons, whoſe duty it ſhould be to viſit every priſon in Ireland in the courſe of two years ; to give his advice and aſſiſtance in chooſing proper plans and ſituations where new gaols are to be erected, and to point out any additions, alterations or improvements which he may deem requiſite to be made in any of the old gaols, for the preſervation of the health of the priſoſoners ; that he ſhould alſo receive reports from the inſpectors of the different counties, cities and county towns, in Ireland ; that he ſhould arrange and digeſt the ſame, and preſent a full and accurate account of all the priſons in this kingdom at the bar of each houſe of parliament on the firſt day of every ſeſſion.

10. RESOLVED,

That it is the opinion of this committee, that the ſaid appointment of inſpector general ſhould not be a permanent eſtabliſhment, and that the duration of it therefore ſhould not exceed the term of two years, as it may be expected that a complete arrangement in the the priſons of this kingdom may be effected within that time.

II. RESOLVED,

That it is the opinion of this committee, that the following regulations ſhould be ſtrictly enforced in every priſon in Ireland, and that the inſpectors of priſons, in making their reports to both houſes of parliament, to the magiſtrates at the quarter ſeſſions, and to the grand juries at the aſſizes, ſhould copy the ſame at full length, and oppoſite to each regulation they ſhould ſtate how far ſuch article has been complied with; and if it ſhall appear that any of the ſeveral regulations have been diſobeyed or neglected by any of the perſons concerned, ſuch perſon or perſons ſhall, upon a repetition of ſuch neglect or diſobedience, be forthwith removed from his or their office or offices.

1ſt. That every gaoler ſhall reſide in priſon, and that he ſhall not be a bailiff, nor ſhall he hold any office or employment that may require his frequent attendance any where elſe.

2dly. That no tap ſhall be kept in the priſon, nor ſhall the gaoler, nor any perſon under his authority, or by his appointment, ſell to the priſoners any malt or ſpirituous liquors, or any manner of proviſion whatſoever.

3dly. That the clergyman appointed to deliver out the bread to the priſoners ſhould take care that it is equally diſtributed, and that it is of a good quality.

4thly. That every room in the priſon ſhould be daily waſhed, ſcraped and ſwept; and that twice at leaſt every year the inſide of the priſon ſhould be white-waſhed, viz. immediately after the Lent and Summer aſſizes; and that every priſoner ſhould be provided with freſh ſtraw once every week.

5thly.

5thly. That priſoners who are ſick ſhould be ſeparated from thoſe who are in health, and that the ſurgeon or medical aſſiſtant ſhould regularly attend the former, and ſupply them medicine, and alſo with broth, and other ſuſtenance, if neceſſary.

6thly. That debtors ſhould be ſeparated from felons and other offenders, and that perſons charged with highway robbery, houſe breaking, murder, and other atrocious crimes, ſhould not be ſuffered to have any intercourſe with priſoners confined for petty offences, and that men and women priſoners of every denomination ſhould be kept ſeparate.

7thly. That to every gaol there ſhould be a ſufficient, clean and well-ſecured yard, for the convenience of priſoners; alſo a bath, and one or more neceſſaries, to which the priſoners ſhould have free acceſs; that no hogs, horſes, cows or other cattle ſhould be kept in the ſaid yard; and that all priſoners ſhould be permitted, at proper times, to air themſelves in the ſaid yard, for at leaſt one hour every day, except priſoners under ſentence of death, and ſuch perſons as are extremely riotous and diſorderly, or where there may be ſufficient reaſon to apprehend that an eſcape might be attempted.

8thly. That no priſoner, not even when condemned, ſhould be put into a dungeon or room under ground, unleſs in conſequence of outrageous conduct, or for an attempt to break gaol.

9thly. That no wine or ſpirituous liquors of any kind ſhould be admitted into the priſon, on any pretence whatſoever, unleſs by a written order from the ſurgeon, the medical aſſiſtant, or the inſpector; nor any penny-pot or garniſh to be taken from priſoners on their entrance into priſon, on any account or pretence whatſoever.

10thly. That a table of fees, to be made out by the inſpector, and to be approved and ſigned by the grand jury and judges of aſſize, ſhould be hung up in a conſpicuous part of the priſon; and alſo a copy of the act of parliament which may be founded on the reſolutions of this committee ſhould be paſted on a board, and placed in the view of the priſoners.

11thly. That the ſeveral local inſpectors of priſons ſhould each of them viſit the gaol or gaols under his inſpection three times at leaſt every week; that at each viſit he ſhould go into every room in the priſon, and if any complaints are made by the priſoners againſt the gaoler or his agents, the inſpector ſhould immediately enquire into the particulars of ſuch complaint, and report accordingly.

12thly. That the ſaid inſpectors ſhould each of them report ſpecially on oath, in the manner hereinbefore directed, the ſtate of the priſons under their inſpection to the magiſtrates at the quarter ſeſſions, and likewiſe to the judges and grand juries at the Lent and Summer aſſizes; they ſhould alſo, immediately before the ſitting of parliament, tranſmit a ſimilar report (ſtating the number of priſoners) to the inſpector general of priſons, to be laid by him before both houſes of parliament on the firſt day of each ſeſſion.

ORDERED,

That leave be given to bring in a bill, purſuant to the ſaid reſolutions; and that Mr. Griffith and Mr. Holmes do prepare and bring in the ſame.

A bill for the further encouragement of the linen manufacture in the province of Munſter, according to order, was read a ſecond time and committed.

RESOLVED,

That this Houſe will, to-morrow morning, reſolve itſelf into a committee of the whole Houſe, to take the ſaid bill into conſideration.

MARTIS, 19° DIE JULIJ, 1785.

A Meſſage from the Lords by Mr. Walker and Mr. Veſey, two of the Maſters in Chancery, that the Lords have agreed to an engroſſed bill, ſent up by this Houſe, entitled an act for the more effectually regiſtering of freeholders, without any amendment.

ALSO,

That the Lords have agreed to an engroſſed bill, ſent up by this Houſe, entitled an act for the more ſpeedy and eaſy recovery of ſmall debts in the manor courts within this kingdom, and for regulating the coſts of proceedings for that purpoſe therein, without any amendment.

ALSO,

That the Lords have agreed to an engroſſed bill, ſent up by this Houſe, entitled an act for amending the ſe-veral laws relating to the regiſtering of wills and deeds in the regiſtry office in this kingdom, and for the better regulating and conducting the buſineſs of the ſaid office, without any amendment.

ALSO,

That the Lords have agreed to an engroſſed bill, ſent up by this Houſe, entitled an act for amending the laws for regulating lottery offices, without any amendment.

ALSO,

That the Lords have agreed to an engroſſed bill, ſent up by this Houſe, entitled an act for reviving, continuing and amending ſeveral temporary ſtatutes, without any amendment.

ALSO,

That the Lords have agreed to an engroſſed bill, ſent up by this Houſe, entitled an act to alter and amend an act made in the twenty-firſt and twenty-ſecond years of his preſent Majeſty's reign, entitled an act to enable the governors of any of the ſchools founded in this kingdom to make long leaſes of ſuch lands as have been granted for the ſupport of the ſaid ſchools, and are ſituate in counties of cities and counties of towns, without any amendment.

ALSO,

That the Lords have agreed to an engroſſed bill, ſent up by this Houſe, entitled an act for granting the ſums of 20,000l. 5000l. and 4000l. to certain truſtees, and for promoting the ſeveral manufactures therein named, without any amendment; which bill the meſſengers delivered at the table, with their meſſage.

ALSO,

ALSO,

That the Lords have agreed to an engroſſed bill, ſent up by this Houſe, entitled an act for directing the application of 2500l. granted to the Dublin Society, for the encouragement of manufactures, arts and ſciences, without any amendment; which bill the meſſengers delivered at the table, with their meſſage.

ALSO,

That the Lords have agreed to an engroſſed bill, ſent up by this Houſe, entitled an act to explain and amend ſeveral laws now in force for the encouragement of agriculture, without any amendment; which bill the meſſengers delivered at the table, with their meſſage.

ALSO,

That the Lords have paſſed an engroſſed bill, entitled an act for the relief of under-tenants, in caſes therein mentioned; to which they deſire the concurrence of this Houſe.

ALSO,

That the Lords have paſſed an engroſſed bill, entitled an act for veſting certain lands and premiſes therein mentioned, the eſtate of the Right Honorable John Earl of Glandore, in truſtees, for raiſing a ſum not exceeding 6500l. by demiſe, ſale or mortgage of a competent part thereof, for the purpoſes in the ſaid act mentioned, and to enable the ſaid Earl of Glandore to make building leaſes of part thereof; to which they deſire the concurrence of this Houſe.

ALSO,

That the Lords have agreed to an engroſſed bill, ſent up by this Houſe, entitled an act for raiſing a ſum of 20,000l.

20,000l. upon the manors of port Dungloe and Mount Charles, in the county of Donegal, the eſtate of the Right Honorable William Conyngham, to be expended, together with another ſum of 20,000l. granted by Parliament, in promoting the fiſheries on the Weſtern coaſt of the county of Donegal, in manner therein mentioned, with ſeveral amendments, to which they deſire the concurrence of this Houſe.

ORDERED,

That the Right Honorable the Chancellor of the Exchequer do attend his Grace the Lord Lieutenant with an engroſſed bill, entitled an act to explain and amend ſeveral laws now in force for the encouragement of agriculture, and deſire that the ſame may be certified into Great Britain, purſuant to the act for that purpoſe, and then returned to this Houſe.

ORDERED,

That the Right Honorable the Chancellor of the Exchequer do attend his Grace the Lord Lieutenant with an engroſſed bill, entitled an act for granting the ſums of 20,000l. 5000l. and 4000l. to certain truſtees, and for promoting the ſeveral manufactures therein named, and deſire that the ſame may be certified into Great Britain, purſuant to the act for that purpoſe, and then returned to this Houſe.

ORDERED,

That the Right Honorable the Chancellor of the Exchequer do attend his Grace the Lord Lieutenant with an engroſſed bill, entitled an act to direct the application of 2500l granted to the Dublin Society, for the encouragement of manufactures, arts and ſciences, and deſire that the ſame may be certified into Great Britain, purſuant to the act for that purpoſe, and then returned to this Houſe.

A Petition

A petition of the mayor, aldermen, ſheriffs and burgeſſes of the city of Londonderry, in common-council aſſembled, was preſented to the Houſe and read, ſetting forth, that certain propoſitions for arranging the commercial intercourſe between Great Britain and Ireland, which had paſſed the Houſe of Commons of Ireland, have been altered in ſuch a manner, and ſo many new ones added by the Britiſh Houſe of Commons, as, in the apprehenſion of petitioners, have rendered them totally irreconcileable to the dignity and intereſt of this kingdom, and praying that the conſideration of ſaid propoſitions may be poſtponed until next ſeſſion of parliament.

ORDERED,

That the ſaid petition do lie on the table for the peruſal of the members.

A petition of the merchants, traders and inhabitants of the city of Londonderry, in common-hall aſſembled, was preſented to the Houſe and read, ſetting forth, that the propoſitions for arranging the commercial intercourſe between Great Britain and Ireland, which had paſſed the Iriſh Parliament, have received very material alterations in the Britiſh Houſe of Commons; that as every opportunity hath been given to the merchants and manufacturers of Great Britain to conſider theſe propoſitions, and lay their ſentiments thereon before parliament, petitioners hope that ſufficient time may be given to the trading intereſt of Ireland to examine a ſyſtem of commercial arrangement that is to be final; and praying that the conſideration of the ſaid propoſitions may be poſtponed until next ſeſſion of parliament.

That the ſaid petition do lie on the table for the peruſal of the members.

The Houſe proceeded to take into conſideration the amendments made by the Lords in an engroſſed bill, ſent up by this Houſe, entitled an act for raiſing the ſum of 20,000l. upon the manors of port Dungloe and Mount Charles, in the county of Donegal, the eſtate of the Right Honorable William Conyngham, to be expended, together with another ſum of 20,000l. granted by parliament, in promoting the fiſheries on the Weſtern coaſt of the county of Donegal, in the manner therein mentioned; and the amendments were once read throughout.

ORDERED,

That the ſaid amendments be taken into further conſideration to-morrow morning.

An engroſſed bill from the Lords, entitled an act for veſting certain lands and premiſes therein mentioned, the eſtate of the Right Honorable John Earl of Glandore, in truſtees, for raiſing a ſum not exceeding 6500l. by demiſe, ſale or mortgage of a competent part thereof, for the purpoſes in the ſaid act mentioned, and to enable the ſaid Earl of Glandore to make building leaſes of part thereof, was read the firſt time, and ordered to be read a ſecond time to-morrow morning.

An engroſſed bill from the Lords, entitled an act for the relief of under-tenants, in the caſes therein mentioned, was read the firſt time, and ordered to be read a ſecond time to-morrow morning.

A petition of the mayor, citizens, traders and manufacturers of the city of Kilkenny, was preſented to the Houſe and read, ſetting forth, that petitioners have taken into conſideration the propoſitions for a conſtitutional and commercial arrangement between Great Britain and Ireland, as they have been altered in the Britiſh Houſe of Commons; and that petitioners hope this Houſe will defer

defer entering into the conſideration of the aforeſaid propoſitions until the next ſeſſion of parliament; and repreſenting, that if it ſhould appear expedient to paſs any acts for commercial regulations between Ireland and Great Britain, the ſacrifice to Great Britain of the internal conſumption of our own manufactures ſhould be in ſome degree compenſated by an unequivocal acknowledgment by the Britiſh parliament, of our being included in all commercial treaties made or to be made with foreign powers; and ſubmitting the premiſes to the conſideration of the Houſe.

That the ſaid petition do lie on the table for the peruſal of the members.

A petition of the merchants, traders and principal inhabitants of the town of Belfaſt, was preſented to the Houſe and read, ſetting forth, that the propoſitions for ſettling a commercial intercourſe between this kingdom and Great Britain, as altered in the Britiſh parliament, ſeem to petitioners calculated not only in many inſtances to ruin the manufactures of Ireland, and cut off her commerce with other countries, but alſo to contain matter ſubverſive of the independence of the Iriſh legiſlature; and praying that when the ſaid propoſitions ſhall come before the Houſe they may be ordered to be printed and diſperſed throughout the kingdom, and that the conſideration of them may be poſtponed until next ſeſſion of parliament.

That the ſaid petition do lie on the table for the peruſal of the members.

The Houſe, according to order, reſolved itſelf into a committee of the whole Houſe, to take into conſideration a bill for the better carrying into execution the ſeveral laws for providing a maintenance for pariſh clerks, clerks, and for other purpoſes; and after ſome time ſpent therein Mr. Speaker reſumed the chair, and Sir Henry Hartſtonge reported from the committee that they had gone through the bill, paragraph by paragraph, without any amendment.

ORDERED,

That the bill be engroſſed.

The Houſe, according to order, reſolved itſelf into a committee of the whole Houſe, to conſider further of ways and means for raiſing the ſupply granted to his Majeſty; and after ſome time ſpent therein Mr. Speaker reſumed the chair, and Sir John Parnell reported from the committee that they had come to ſeveral reſolutions in the matter to them referred, which he was ready to report when the Houſe will pleaſe to receive the ſame.

ORDERED,

That the ſaid report be received to-morrow morning.

A petition of the freemen, freeholders, merchants, traders and other inhabitants of the town, and county of the town of Drogheda, was preſented to the Houſe and read, ſetting forth, that petitioners humbly conceive that the reſolutions for a final adjuſtment of commercial intercourſe between Great Britain and Ireland are deſtructive of the trade and conſtitution of this country; that a ſubject of ſuch magnitude cannot be too maturely and deliberately conſidered, and praying that the conſideration of the ſaid propoſitions may be poſtponed until the next ſeſſion of parliament.

ORDERED,

That the ſaid petition do lie on the table for the peruſal of the members.

A petition

A petition of the merchants, traders, manufacturers and inhabitants of the town and neighbourhood of Wexford, was preſented to the Houſe and read, ſetting forth, that certain propoſitions for a final ſettlement of the trade between Great Britain and Ireland, lately agreed to by the Britiſh Houſe of Commons, contain a ſyſtem of commerce ſo complicated, and filled with matters of ſuch great conſequence to the ſafety and exiſtence of our trade and conſtitution, as to require ſome time to be given to the traders and manufacturers of Ireland to digeſt the whole, and to come to proper and ſalutary reſolutions about them; and praying the Houſe not to come to any final reſolutions upon ſaid propoſitions during this ſeſſion of parliament.

ORDERED,

That the ſaid petition do lie on the table for the peruſal of the members.

ORDERED,

That Mr. Speaker do iſſue his warrant to the clerk of the crown to make out a new writ for electing a burgeſs to ſerve in this preſent Parliament for the borough of Wexford, in the county of Wexford, in the room of the Right Honorable Charles Tottenham Loftus, now Lord Baron Loftus.

A bill to regulate the trade of pawn-brokers, and to enable them to take a higher intereſt for ſums under 10l. than 6l. per centum per annum, according to order, was read a ſecond time and committed.

RESOLVED,

That this Houſe will, to-morrow morning, reſolve itſelf into a committee of the whole Houſe, to take the ſaid bill into conſideration.

A bill for amending the police of the county of Tipperary, and more effectually promoting the ends of public juſtice therein, and for other purpoſes therein to be mentioned, according to order, was read a ſecond time and committed.

RESOLVED,

That this Houſe will, to-morrow morning, reſolve itſelf into a committee of the whole Houſe, to take the ſaid bill into conſideration.

A meſſage from his Grace the Lord Lieutenant by Bryan Connor, Eſq; Yeoman Uſher of the Black Rod:

" MR. SPEAKER,

" It is his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's pleaſure that " this Houſe do attend him immediately in the Houſe of " Peers."

Accordingly Mr. Speaker, with the Houſe, went up to attend his Grace in the Houſe of Peers; and being returned, Mr. Speaker reported that the Houſe had attended his Grace the Lord Lieutenant in the Houſe of Peers, and that his Grace had given the royal aſſent to the following bills:

PUBLIC BILLS.

1. An act for continuing and amending ſeveral laws relating to his Majeſty's revenue, and for the more effectually preventing of frauds therein.

2. An act for the relief of inſolvent debtors, with reſpect to the impriſonment of their perſons.

3. An act for the completing and effectually lighting and watching of Rutland Square, and for the better ſupport and maintenance of the hoſpital for the relief of poor poor lying-in women in the city of Dublin, and for other purpoſes therein mentioned.

4. An act for the further improvement and extenſion of the fiſheries on the coaſts of this kingdom.

5. An act to explain and amend the ſeveral acts made in this kingdom to encourage the building of houſes, and making other improvements on church lands, and for other purpoſes.

6. An act for preventing vexatious injunctions to ſtay proceedings at law, and for giving coſts to defendants in courts of equity in certain caſes.

PRIVATE BILLS.

1. An act for veſting certain lands, tenements, hereditaments and premiſes, ſituate in the county of Waterford and kingdom of Ireland, the eſtate of John Uſher, Eſq; in truſtees, that the ſame, or a competent part thereof, may be ſold for the payment of debts and incumbrances affecting the ſame.

2. An act for veſting certain lands in the county of Galway, late the eſtate of Sir Ulick Burke, Baronet, deceaſed, in truſtees, to raiſe by ſale or mortgage of a competent part thereof a ſum of 16,000l. ſterling, for the purpoſe of paying off incumbrances, and for other family purpoſes therein mentioned.

3. An act for veſting certain lands and tenements therein mentioned, the eſtates of Walter Taylor, of Caſtle-Taylor, in the county of Galway, Eſq; in truſtees, for payment of debts and incumbrances affecting the ſame.

4. An

4. An act for making an exemplification of the laſt will and teſtament of James Tilſon, formerly of Boleſworth Caſtle, in the county of Cheſter, in the kingdom of Great Britain, Eſq; evidence of ſuch will within the kingdom of Ireland.

5. An act to enable the Right Honorable Sentleger, Lord Baron Doneraile, and his eldeſt ſon, the Honorable Hayes Sentleger, to ſettle a jointure on ſuch wife as the ſaid Hayes Sentleger ſhall marry in the lifetime of his father, and to ſecure a proviſion for the younger children of ſaid Hayes Sentleger by ſuch wife.

6. An act to enable the Honorable Edward Ward and Sir John Parnell, Bart. committees of the eſtates of the Right Honorable Nicholas, Lord Viſcount Bangor, a lunatick, to make leaſes of the eſtates of the ſaid lunatick.

The Houſe, according to order, reſolved itſelf into a committee of the whole Houſe, to take into conſideration a bill to repeal an act, entitled an act for regulating meaſures in buying and ſelling corn, and for promoting huſbandry; and after ſome time ſpent therein Mr. Speaker reſumed the chair, and Mr. Tydd reported from the committee that they had gone through the bill, paragraph by paragraph, without any amendment.

Ordered,

That the bill be engroſſed.

A bill for further amending an act paſſed in the thirty-firſt year of the reign of his late Majeſty King George the ſecond, entitled an act for making a wide and convenient way, ſtreet and paſſage from Eſſex-bridge to the caſtle of Dublin, and for other purpoſes therein mentioned; and alſo for explaining and further amending the ſeveral acts heretofore paſſed for the improvement provement of the city of Dublin, by making wide and convenient paſſages through the ſame, according to order, was read a ſecond time and committed.

RESOLVED,

That this Houſe will, to-morrow morning, reſolve itſelf into a committee of the whole Houſe, to take the ſaid bill into conſideration.

ORDERED,

That the proper officer do lay before this Houſe an account of what articles of the manufacture of the Eaſt-Indies are prohibited to be imported into this kingdom for home conſumption, from all places whatſoever; diſtinguiſhing the places and countries from whence they are ſo prohibited to be imported.

ORDERED,

That the proper officer do lay before this Houſe an account of the number of men raiſed in this kingdom for the ſervice of his majeſty's fleets and armies, from the concluſion of the peace in 1763 to the preſent time; diſtinguiſhing the numbers raiſed for the regiments in this kingdom at all times reſpectively.

And then the Houſe adjourned until to-morrow morning. ten of the clock.

A Meſſage from the Lords by Mr. Walker and Mr. Veſey, two of the Maſters in Chancery, that the Lords have paſſed an engroſſed bill, entitled an act for reviving and continuing temporary ſtatutes; to which they deſire the concurrence of this Houſe.

An engroſſed bill from the Lords, entitled an act for reviving and continuing temporary ſtatutes, was read the firſt time, and ordered to be read a ſecond time to-morrow morning.

Sir John Parnell, according to order, reported from the committee of the whole Houſe, appointed to conſider further of ways and means for raiſing the ſupply granted to his Majeſty for promoting and carrying on inland navigations in Ireland, the reſolutions which the committee had directed him to report to the Houſe, which he read in his place, and after delivered in at the table, where the ſame were read, and agreed unto by the Houſe, and are as follow:

1. Resolved,

That it is the opinion of this committee, that towards raiſing the further ſupply granted to his Majeſty for promoting and carrying on inland navigations in Ireland, a tax of twenty ſhillings yearly be laid on every coach and chariot, and of five ſhillings on every chaiſe in this kingdom, not uſed for hire, for twenty-one years, from the 25th day of March, 1786.

2. Resolved,

That it is the opinion of this committee, that towards raiſing the ſaid ſupply, a tax of ſix-pence a pack be laid on all playing cards which ſhall be made for ſale in this kingdom, and of twelve-pence a pack on all which ſhall be imported, during the time aforeſaid, over and above all other duties payable thereon.

3. Resolved,

That it is the opinion of this committee, that towards raiſing the ſaid ſupply, a tax of five ſhillings a pair be laid on all dice made in this kingdom, or which ſhall be imported into the ſame, during the time aforeſaid, over and above all other duties payable thereon.

4. Resolved,

That it is the opinion of this committee, that towards raiſing the ſaid ſupply, a tax of ſix-pence per ounce be laid on all wrought or manufactured plate which ſhall be imported into this kingdom during the time aforeſaid, over and above all other duties payable thereon.

5. Resolved,

5. RESOLVED,

That it is the opinion of this committee, that neither the ſix-pence per pound, nor any other fees, ſhall be payable to the vice-treaſurers, receiver or pay-maſter general, clerk of the pells, or any other officer or officers of this kingdom, for or on account of the iſſuing or payment of any ſum or ſums of money which ſhall be received for or on account of the ſaid ſeveral duties.

ORDERED,

That leave be given to bring in one or more bill or bills, purſuant to the ſaid reſolutions, and the reſolutions of the committee of ſupply; and that the Right Honorable Mr. Chancellor of the Exchequer, Sir John Parnell, the Right Honorable Mr. Attorney General, Mr. Solicitor General and Mr. Prime Serjeant do prepare and bring in the ſame.

ORDERED,

That it be an inſtruction to the committee appointed to prepare and bring in one or more bill or bills, purſuant to the reſolutions of the committee of ways and means, for promoting and carrying on inland navigations in Ireland, and the reſolutions of the committee of ſupply, to inſert a clauſe or clauſes in the ſaid bill or bills, purſuant to the reſolutions of the committee appointed to take into conſideration the moſt effectual method of continuing and compleating the inland navigations of this kingdom, as agreed to by this Houſe on the 28th of May laſt.

A bill for the more effectually collecting the public money to be raiſed by preſentment within the county of

of the city of Dublin, and alſo for the more effectually repairing the roads within the county of the ſaid city, according to order, was read a ſecond time and committed.

RESOLVED,

That this Houſe will, to-morrow morning, reſolve itſelf into a committee of the whole Houſe, to take the ſaid bill into conſideration.

An engroſſed bill for the better carrying into execution the ſeveral laws for providing a maintenance for pariſh clerks, and for other purpoſes, was read the third time.

RESOLVED,

That the bill do paſs, and that the title be, an act for the better carrying into execution the ſeveral laws for providing a maintenance for pariſh clerks, and for other purpoſes.

ORDERED,

That Sir Henry Hartſtonge do carry the ſaid bill to the Lords, and deſire their concurrence.

Mr. John Wolfe preſented to the Houſe, according to order, a bill for continuing and amending the ſeveral laws relating to the repairs of the turnpike-road leading from Dublin to Mullingar, and for more effectually enabling the truſtees thereof to widen the narrow parts leading from Chapel-Izod to Dublin, on the North and South ſides of the river Liffey; which was received and read the firſt time, and ordered to be read a ſecond time to-morrow morning.

An engroſſed bill from the Lords, entitled an act for veſting certain lands and premiſes therein mentioned, the eſtate of the Right Honorable John Earl of Glandore, in truſtees, for raiſing a ſum not exceeeding 6500l. by demiſe, ſale or mortgage of a competent part thereof, for the purpoſes in the ſaid act mentioned, and to enable the ſaid Earl of Glandore to make building leaſes of part thereof, according to order, was read a ſecond time and committed.

RESOLVED,

That this Houſe will, to-morrow morning, reſolve itſelf into a committee of the whole Houſe, to take the ſaid bill into conſideration.

The Houſe, according to order, proceeded to take into further conſideration the amendments made by the Lords in an engroſſed bill, ſent up by this Houſe, entitled an act for raiſing the ſum of 20,000l. upon the manors of port Dungloe and Mount Charles, in the county of Donegal, the eſtate of the Right Honorable William Conyngham, to be expended, together with another ſum of 20,000l. granted by parliament, in promoting the fiſheries on the Weſtern coaſt of the county of Donegal, in the manner therein mentioned; and the amendments being then read a ſecond time, and the queſtion being thereupon ſeverally put, were agreed to by the Houſe.

ORDERED,

That Mr. Hayes do carry the ſaid bill to the Lords, and acquaint them that this Houſe hath agreed to the amendments made therein by their Lordſhips.

A petition of the freeholders of the county of Down, whoſe names are thereunto ſubſcribed, was preſented to the Houſe and read, ſetting forth that petitioners are much alarmed at the alterations which have been made by the Britiſh Houſe of Commons in the commercial propoſitions which paſſed the parliament of Ireland; and are apprehenſive that, ſhould the ſame be adopted here, our manufactures might be ruined, our trade circumſcribed, and the independence of our legiſlature ſubverted; and praying that the conſideration of the ſaid propoſitions may be poſtponed until the next ſeſſion of parliament.

ORDERED,

That the ſaid petition do lie on the table for the peruſal of the members.

An engroſſed bill from the Lords, entitled an act for the relief of under-tenants, in the caſes therein mentioned, according to order, was read a ſecond time and committed.

RESOLVED,

That this Houſe will, on Friday morning next, reſolve itſelf into a committee of the whole Houſe, to take the ſaid bill into conſideration.

A bill for regulating the ſtage in the city and county of Dublin, according to order, was read a ſecond time and committed.

RESOLVED,

That this Houſe will, on Friday morning next, reſolve itſelf into a committee of the whole Houſe, to take the ſaid bill into conſideration.

The Houſe, according to order, reſolved itſelf into a committee of the whole Houſe, to take into conſideration a bill to eſtabliſh the buſineſs of a pawn-broker, and to authoriſe ſuch perſons as ſhall be duly qualified to carry on the ſame to lend money on pawns or pledges, and to receive intereſt at a higher rate than heretofore was recoverable by law; and after ſome time ſpent therein Mr. Speaker reſumed the chair, and Alderman Warren reported from the committee that they had made ſome progreſs

progreſs in the matter to them referred, and that he was directed by the committee to deſire leave to ſit again.

RESOLVED,

That this Houſe will, to-morrow morning, reſolve itſelf into a committee of the whole Houſe, to take the ſaid bill into further conſideration.

And then the Houſe adjourned until to-morrow morning, ten of the clock.

SEVERAL members returned upon new Writs took the oaths, made and ſubſcribed the declaration, and took and ſubſcribed the oath of abjuration, according to the laws made for thoſe purpoſes.

A petition of the freeholders of the county of Antrim, duly aſſembled, was preſented to the Houſe and read, ſetting forth, that petitioners have ſeen twenty reſolutions, copied from the Votes of the Britiſh Houſe of Commons, for finally adjuſting a commercial intercourſe between this kingdom and Great Britain; and that the ſaid reſolutions are evidently ſubverſive of the legiſlative independency of Ireland, and no leſs ruinous to the commerce and manufactures, than deſtructive to the conſtitutional rights of this kingdom; and praying that the ſame, or any of ſimilar purport, may not be conſidered this ſeſſion of parliament.

That the ſaid petition do lie on the table for the peruſal of the members.

A petition of the freeholders of the town and pariſh of Larne, pariſhes of Carn Caſtle, Killwaghter and Ralloo, was preſented to the Houſe and read, ſetting forth that the twenty reſolutions which have lately paſſed the Britiſh Houſe of Commons, relating to a commercial arrangement with this kingdom, appear to petitioners to affect, in a very important degree, the rights and intereſts of Ireland, and alſo to involve in them matter directly ſubverſive of the independence of the Iriſh legiſlature; and praying that the conſideration thereof may be poſtponed until the next ſeſſion of parliament.

That the ſaid petition do lie on the table for the peruſal of the members.

Mr. John Wolfe, according to order, reported from the committee of the whole Houſe, appointed to take into conſideration a bill for continuing and amending the ſeveral laws relating to the repairs of the turnpike-road leading from Dublin to Mullingar, and for more effectually enabling the truſtees thereof to widen the narrow parts leading from Chapel-Izod to Dublin, on the North and South ſides of the river Liffey, that they had gone through the bill, paragraph by paragraph, without any amendment.

ORDERED,

That the bill be engroſſed.

A petition of the freeholders, freemen, merchants, traders and manufacturers of the city of Cork, was preſented to the Houſe and read, ſetting forth, that the twenty twenty reſolutions which have paſſed the Britiſh Houſe of Commons, relative to a ſettlement of commercial intercourſe between Great Britain and this kingdom, are ſo drawn as that no benefit is likely to accrue to Ireland therefrom, and that they threaten danger to the conſtitutional and commercial rights of Ireland; and praying that the conſideration of the ſaid propoſitions may be poſtponed until the next ſeſſion of parliament.

ORDERED,

That the ſaid petition do lie on the table for the peruſal of the members.

ORDERED,

That leave be given to bring in a bill to prevent the exportation of hay from this kingdom for a limited time; and that Mr. Lowther and Mr. Charles O'Neill do prepare and bring in the ſame.

Mr. Lowther preſented to the Houſe, according to order, a bill to prevent the exportation of hay from this kingdom for a limited time; which was received and read the firſt time, and ordered to be read a ſecond time forthwith.

Then the ſaid bill, according to order, was read a ſecond time, and committed.

RESOLVED,

That this Houſe do, forthwith, reſolve itſelf into a committee of the whole Houſe, to take the ſaid bill into conſideration.

Then the Houſe, according to order, reſolved itſelf into a committee of the whole Houſe, to take the ſaid bill into conſideration; and after ſome time ſpent therein Mr. Speaker reſumed the chair, and Mr. Lowther reported from the committee that they had gone through the bill, paragraph by paragraph, and made ſeveral

ſeveral amendments therein, which he read in his place, and after delivered in at the table, with the amendments; and the amendments were once read throughout, and then a ſecond time, and the queſtion being thereupon ſeverally put, were agreed to by the Houſe; and an amendment was made in the ſaid bill by the Houſe.

ORDERED,

That the bill, with the amendments, be engroſſed.

ORDERED,

That the books and papers belonging to the Grand Canal Company, lodged with the clerk of this Houſe, be returned to the ſecretary of the ſaid company.

A meſſage from the Lords by Mr. Walker and Mr. Veſey, two of the Maſters in Chancery, that the Lords have agreed to an engroſſed bill, ſent up by this Houſe, entitled an act to amend an act, entitled an act for cleanſing the ports, harbours and rivers of the city of Cork, and of the towns of Galway, Sligo, Drogheda and Belfaſt, and for erecting a ballaſt-office in the ſaid city, and in each of the ſaid towns, without any amendment; which bill the meſſengers delivered at the table, with their meſſage.

AND ALSO,

That the Lords have agreed to an engroſſed bill, ſent up by this Houſe, entitled an act to carry into further effect an act paſſed in the laſt ſeſſion of Parliament in this kingdom, entitled an act for the due accounting for all money granted for public works, charities and hoſpitals therein-mentioned; and for the ordering a regular account in future of all monies entruſted to the corporation for carrying on the inland navigation, the truſtees of the linen manufacture, the Dublin Society, the corporation for paving the ſtreets of Dublin, and for other other purpoſes therein-mentioned, without any amendment; which bill the meſſengers delivered at the table, with their meſſage.

ORDERED,

That the Right Honorable Mr. Chancellor of the Exchequer do attend his Grace the Lord Lieutenant with the engroſſed bill, entitled an act to amend an act, entitled an act for cleanſing the ports, harbours and rivers of the city of Cork, and of the towns of Galway, Sligo, Drogheda and Belfaſt, and for erecting a ballaſt-office in the ſaid city, and each of the ſaid towns; and deſire that the ſame may be certified into Great Britain, purſuant to the act made for that purpoſe, and then returned to this Houſe.

ORDERED,

That the Right Honorable Mr. Chancellor of the Exchequer do attend his Grace the Lord Lieutenant with an engroſſed bill, entitled an act to carry into further effect an act paſſed in the laſt ſeſſion of Parliament in this kingdom, entitled an act for the due accounting for all money granted for public works, charities and hoſpitals therein-mentioned; and for the ordering a regular account in future of all monies entruſted to the corporation for carrying on the inland navigation, the truſtees of the linen manufacture, the Dublin Society, the corporation for paving the ſtreets of Dublin, and for other purpoſes therein-mentioned; and deſire that the ſame may be certified into Great Britain, purſuant to the act made for that purpoſe, and then returned to this Houſe.

An engroſſed bill, to prevent the exportation of hay from this kingdom for a limited time, was read the third time.

RESOLVED,

That the bill do paſs, and that the title be, an act to prevent the exportation of hay from this kingdom for a limited time.

ORDERED,

That Mr. Lowther do carry the ſaid bill to the Lords, and deſire their concurrence.

A meſſage from the Lords by Mr. Walker and Mr. Veſey, two of the Maſters in Chancery, that the Lords have agreed to an engroſſed bill, ſent up by this Houſe, entitled an act to prevent the exportation of hay from this kingdom for a limited time, without any amendment.

A petition of William Bingley, a priſoner in his Majeſty's gaol of Newgate, ſetting forth that petitioner has been twenty-two weeks in confinement; that petitioner is ſenſible of the impropriety of his conduct, and praying to be releaſed, in conſequence of his penitence and long confinement, was preſented to the Houſe.

And then the Houſe adjourned until Thurſday the 11th day of Auguſt, inſtant, at ten of the clock in the morning.

OF THE

Houſe of Commons.

JOVIS, 11 DIE AUGUSTI, 1785.

A Member returned upon a new Writ took the oaths, made and ſubſcribed the declaration, and took and ſubſcribed the oath of abjuration, according to the laws made for thoſe purpoſes.

The petition of William Bingley, a priſoner in his Majeſty's Gaol of Newgate by order of the Houſe, preſented to the Houſe on Tueſday the 2d day of Auguſt inſtant, was upon Motion read.

ORDERED,

That the ſaid William Bingley be diſcharged, without payment of Fees.

A petition of the gentlemen clergy and freeholders of the county of Monaghan was preſented to the Houſe and read, ſetting forth, that petitioners are exceedingly concerned at the proſpect of the propoſitions which have lately paſſed both Houſes of Parliament in Great Britain being paſſed into a law in this kingdom, as they conceive them to be a reſumption of the right of legiſlating for this kingdom, lately ſo ſolemnly relinquiſhed by the Parliament of Great Britain, and materially reſtraining the trade of this kingdom; and praying that the ſaid propoſitions, or any bill grounded on them, may not paſs into a law; or that the conſideration of them may at leaſt be poſtponed until ſufficient time may be given for the body of the people to conſider them.

ORDERED,

That the ſaid petition do lie on the table for the peruſal of the members.

A petition of the freeholders of the county of Armagh was preſented to the Houſe and read, ſetting forth, that petitioners are apprehenſive of the dangerous tendency of certain propoſitions then before the Britiſh Houſe of Commons, purporting to be a final and permanent adjuſtment of commerce between Great Britain and Ireland; and that they conceive that many of the regulations therein propoſed will, if eſtabliſhed, be injurious to the trade of this kingdom, and a dangerous encroachment on the independence of our Legiſlature; and praying the Houſe not to give effect to a ſyſtem ſo dangerous to our liberties, and ſo adverſe to our trade, or at leaſt, that the further conſideration of them may be poſtponed to a fature ſeſſion.

ORDERED,

That the ſaid petition do lie on the table for the peruſal of the members.

A pe-

A petition of the conſtituents of the borough of Antrim ; was preſented to the Houſe and read, ſetting forth, that the twenty reſolutions which paſſed the Britiſh Parliament are no leſs ruinous to the commerce and manufactures than deſtructive to the conſtitutional rights of this kingdom ; and praying that the conſideration of the ſaid propoſitions may be poſtponed until next ſeſſion of Parliament.

ORDERED,

That the ſaid petition do lie on the table for the peruſal of the members.

A petition of the there under-ſigned fiſhermen of the towns of Baldoyle, Malahide and Howth, was preſented to the Houſe and read, ſetting forth, that petitioners are greatly diſtreſſed by a clauſe in the revenue act, paſſed this ſeſſion of Parliament, whereby they are prohibited from fiſhing except their veſſels are ſquare rigged and fitted with ſtanding boltſprits ; and praying relief.

ORDERED,

That the ſaid petition do lie on the table for the peruſal of the members.

A petition of the gentlemen clergy and freeholders of the King's County was preſented to the Houſe and read, ſetting forth, that they conceive that the propoſitions, which under colour of a commercial adjuſtment between Ireland and Great Britain, have paſſed both Houſes of the Britiſh Parliament, are ſubverſive of the Independence of this kingdom, and highly prejudicial to its commerce and manufactures, and praying the ſame may not paſs into a law.

ORDERED,

That the ſaid petition do lie on the table for the peruſal of the members.

A petition of the merchants and traders of the city of Dublin, whoſe names are thereunder-written, was preſented to the Houſe and read, ſetting forth, that petitioners conceive that the reſolutions of the Parliament of Great Britain, for ſettling a permanent commercial arrangement between the two kingdoms, would be partially reſtrictive, and manifeſtly unjuſt in their commercial operation, and in their political view highly inſulting to the dignity of this free nation, inaſmuch as they are ſubverſive of the independency of its legiſlature; and ſubmitting that the ſeaſon of the year, and the time of the ſeaſon, already greatly protracted, are obviouſly unfavourable to the diſcuſſion of a queſtion of ſuch magnitude; and praying that no ſyſtem whatever of general commercial arrangement with the ſiſter kingdom be adopted during the preſent ſeſſion of Parliament.

That the ſaid petition do lie on the table for the peruſal of the members.

A petition of the manufacturers of the city and liberties of Dublin was preſented to the Houſe and read, ſetting forth that the twenty reſolutions which have paſſed both houſes of the Britiſh Parliament, as intending to regulate finally the intercourſe and commerce between Great Britain and Ireland, invade the conſtitution of this kingdom, reſtrict its trade and diſcourage its manufactures, and praying the Houſe not to accede to the ſaid propoſitions, or to any bill partaking of their principle.

ORDERED,

That the ſaid petition do lie on the table for the peruſal of the members.

A petition of the gentlemen clergy and freeholders of the county of Meath was preſented to the Houſe and read, ſetting forth that petitioners conceive the reſolutions which have lately paſſed both houſes of Parliament in Great Britain, for ſettling a final adjuſtment of commercial intercourſe between Great Britain and Ireland, are ſubverſive of the legiſlative independency and commercial rights of Ireland, and praying that no ſyſtem of commercial intercourſe between the two countries may be adopted at this late period of the ſeſſion.

That the ſaid petition do lie on the table for the peruſal of the members.

A petition of the gentlemen clergy and freeholders of the county of Cork was preſented to the Houſe and read, ſetting forth that the reſolutions of the Britiſh Parliament, for finally ſettling the commerce between Great Britain and Ireland, appear to petitioners to contain a ſyſtem arbitrary and unjuſt, at once deſtructive of the trade, and fatal to the conſtitution of Ireland, and praying that their conſideration may be poſtponed until next ſeſſion of Parliament.

ORDERED,

That the ſaid petition do lie on the table for the peruſal of the members.

A meſſage from his Grace the Lord Lieutenant by Bryan Connor, Eſq; Yeoman-Uſher of the Black Rod:

" MR. SPEAKER,

" It is his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's pleaſure " that this Houſe do attend him immediately in the " Houſe of Peers."

Accordingly Mr. Speaker, with the Houſe, went to attend his Grace.

And being returned,

Mr. Speaker reported that the Houſe had attended his Grace the Lord Lieutenant in the Houſe of Peers, where his Grace was pleaſed to give the royal aſſent to the bills following:

PUBLIC BILLS.

1. An act to amend an act, entitled an act for the more ſpeedy and effectual recovery of the king's debts.

2. An act for the more ſpeedy and eaſy recovery of ſmall debts in the manor courts within this kingdom, and for regulating the coſts of proceedings for that purpoſe therein.

3. An act to alter and amend an act made in the twenty-firſt and twenty-ſecond years of his preſent majeſty's reign, entitled an act to enable the governors of any of the ſchools founded in this kingdom to make long leaſes of ſuch lands as have been granted for the ſupport of the ſaid ſchools, and are ſituate in counties of cities and counties of towns.

4. An act for amending the laws for regulating lottery offices.

5. An act for the more effectually regiſtering of freeholders.

6. An

6. An act for amending the ſeveral laws relating to the regiſtring of wills and deeds in the regiſtry office of this kingdom, and for the better regulating and conducting the buſineſs of the ſaid office.

7. An act for reviving, continuing and amending ſeveral temporary ſtatutes.

8. An act for granting the ſums of 20,000l. 5000l. and 4000l. to certain truſtees, and for promoting the ſeveral manufactures therein named.

PRIVATE BILLS.

1. An act for the more effectually raiſing a ſufficient ſum of money for diſcharging the debts and incumbrances affecting certain lands in the counties of Wexford, Mayo, Sligo, and Donegal, the eſtates of the Right Honorable Arthur Saunders, Earl of Arran, and the Honorable Arthur Saunders Gore, commonly called Lord Viſcount Sudley, and for the payment of the debts now due by them reſpectively, and for other purpoſes.

2. An act for veſting certain lands, tenements and hereditaments therein mentioned, the eſtate of Sir Michael Cromie, Baronet, in the Right Honorable Thomas Conolly and the Right Honorable Luke Gardiner, truſtees therein mentioned, for payment of debts and incumbrances affecting the ſame.

3. An act for raiſing the ſum of 20,000l. upon the manors of Port Dungloe and Mount Charles, in the county of Donegal, the eſtate of the Right Honorable William Conyngham, to be expended, together with another ſum of 20,000. granted by Parliament, in promoting the fiſheries on the Weſtern coaſt of the county of Donegal, in manner therein mentioned.

AN engroſſed bill to eſtabliſh the buſineſs of a pawnbroker, and to authorize ſuch perſons as ſhall be duly qualified to carry on the ſame to lend money on pawns or pledges, and to receive intereſt at a higher rate than heretofore was recoverable by law, was read the third time.

RESOLVED,

That the bill do paſs, and that the title be, an act to eſtabliſh the buſineſs of a pawnbroker, and to authorize ſuch perſons as ſhall be duly qualified to carry on the ſame to lend money on pawns or pledges, and to receive intereſt at a higher rate than heretofore was recoverable by law.

ORDERED,

That Mr. Holmes do carry the ſaid bill to the Lords, and deſire their concurrence.

The Houſe, according to order, proceeded to take into further conſideration an engroſſed bill for explaining and further amending the ſeveral acts heretofore paſſed for the improvement of the city of Dublin, by making wide and convenient paſſages through the ſame, and for other purpoſes; and an amendment was made in the ſaid bill by the Houſe.

RESOLVED,

That the bill do paſs, and that the title be, an act for explaining and further amending the ſeveral acts heretofore paſſed for the improvement of the city of Dublin, by making wide and convenient paſſages through the ſame, and for other purpoſes.

ORDERED,

That Mr. Caldwell do carry the ſaid bill to the Lords, and deſire their concurrence.

A petition of the callico, cotton and linen printers of the county of Dublin was preſented to the Houſe and read, ſetting forth, that the trade of printing linens and cottons has conſiderably declined in this kingdom of late years, owing to the importation of immenſe quantities of printed goods from Great Britain into this kingdom; that from a regulation made by Parliament in the laſt ſeſſion, petitioners experienced a revival, in ſome meaſure, of their trade: That petitioners are apprehenſive that the reſolutions relating to a commercial adjuſtment, which have lately paſſed both Houſes of the Britiſh Parliament, and particularly the eleventh reſolution, tend to do away that regulation; and praying to

to be heard by themſelves and counſel in ſupport of their petition.

That the ſaid petition do lie on the table for the peruſal of the members.

The Houſe, according to order, reſolved itſelf into a committee of the whole Houſe, to take into conſideration an engroſſed bill from the lords, entitled an act for reviving and continuing temporary ſtatutes; and after ſome time ſpent therein Mr. Speaker reſumed the chair, and Sir Hercules Langriſhe reported from the committee that they had gone through the bill, paragraph by paragraph, without any amendment.

ORDERED,

That the ſaid bill be read a third time to-morrow morning.

An engroſſed bill for continuing and amending the ſeveral laws relating to the repairs of the turnpike road leading from Dublin to Mullingar, and for more effectually enabling the truſtees thereof to widen the narrow parts leading from Chapel-Izod to Dublin, on the North and South ſides of the River Liffey, was read the third time.

RESOLVED,

That the bill do paſs, and that the title be, an act for continuing and amending the ſeveral laws relating to the repairs of the turnpike road leading from Dublin to Mullingar, and for more effectually enabling the truſtees thereof to widen the narrow parts leading from Chapel-Izod to Dublin, on the North and South ſides of the river Anna Liffey.

LUNÆ, 5 DIE SEPTEMBRIS, 1785.

THE Houſe being met, the Honorable Mr. Knox delivered to the Clerk, at the table, a letter from the Right Honorable Edmund Sexten Pery, Speaker, directed to Doctor Ellis, Clerk of the Houſe of Commons of Ireland, which was opened and read, and is as follows:

"DR. ELLIS,

"I deſire that you will preſent the encloſed to the "Houſe of Commons.

"I am,

"4th Sept. 1785. "SIR,

"Your humble ſervant,

"EDM. SEX. PERY."

And the encloſed letter was alſo opened, and read, and is as follows:

"GENTLEMEN,

" My advanced age, the decline of my ſtrength, and " what I feared moſt, of my underſtanding, have de- " termined me, before my imperfections become more " apparent, to retire from that high ſtation to which " your favour had raiſed me. To theſe perſonal con- " ſiderations let me add one of much more moment, " the hazard of an interruption to the buſineſs of the " public by my infirmities. Theſe motives have in- " duced me to requeſt that you will accept of my re- " ſignation of that high office with which you honoured " me, and elect another gentleman in my room: And " give me leave, gentlemen, at the ſame time, to make " my moſt humble and grateful acknowledgments to " you for your tenderneſs and indulgence to my errors, " and for the conſtant and honorable ſupport which " you have given me in the diſcharge of my duty du- " ring the courſe of fourteen years and upwards, the " memory of which can never be eraſed from my mind. " I am, with the utmoſt reſpect, and the moſt ſincere " affection,

" Gentlemen,

" Your moſt obliged,

" 4th Sept. 1785. " And moſt obedient ſervant,

" EDM. SEX. PERY."

And then the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary Orde, addreſſing himſelf to the Clerk, who ſtanding up, pointed to him, and then ſat down, informed the Houſe that his Grace the Lord Lieutenant having been acquainted that the Right Honorable Edmund Sexten Pery, the late Speaker of this Houſe, had reſigned the Chair, and requeſted the Houſe to elect another Speaker, he (Mr. Orde) was commanded by his Grace to acquaint the Houſe, that it was his Grace's pleaſure that the

Houſe

Houſe do proceed to the election of another Speaker, and preſent him to his Grace for his approbation forthwith.

And then the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary Orde, addreſſing himſelf alſo in like manner to the Clerk, propoſed the Right Honorable John Foſter to the Houſe, to be their Speaker; in which motion he was ſeconded by Lord Kilwarlin.

The Right Honorable John Foſter was then elected Speaker, Nem. Con.

And Mr. Speaker elect was taken out of his place by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary Orde and Lord Kilwarlin, who led him from the Bar of the Houſe up to the Chair, where, upon the firſt ſtep of the Chair, he made a ſhort ſpeech to the Houſe, and thanked them for the honor they had done him, and afterwards ſat down in the Chair; and then the Mace, which lay before under the table, was laid on the table.

A meſſage from his Grace the Lord Lieutenant by George Bernard, Eſq; Gentleman Uſher of the Black Rod:

"GENTLEMEN OF THE HOUSE OF COMMONS,

"IT is his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's pleaſure that "this Houſe do attend him immediately in the Houſe "of Peers."

And Mr. Speaker elect, with the other Members preſent, went up to attend his Grace the Lord Lieutenant in the Houſe of Peers.

And the Houſe being returned, Mr. Speaker reported that the Houſe had attended his Grace the Lord Lieutenant in the Houſe of Peers, where his Grace was pleaſed pleaſed to approve the choice they had made of him to be their Speaker.

A member returned upon a new writ took the oaths, made and ſubſcribed the declaration, and took and ſubſcribed the oath of abjuration, purſuant to the laws made for thoſe purpoſes.

RESOLVED, Nem. Con.

That the thanks of this Houſe be given to the Right Honorable Edmund Sexten Pery, for his conſtant and unwearied attendance in the chair during the courſe of above fourteen years in three ſucceſſive Parliaments, for the unſhaken integrity and ſteady impartiality of his conduct there, and for the indefatigable pains and uncommon ability with which he has conſtantly exerted himſelf to promote the real intereſt of this country, to maintain the honor and dignity of Parliament, and to preſerve inviolate the rights and privileges of the commons of Ireland.

RESOLVED, Nem. Con.

That an humble addreſs be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, moſt humbly to beſeech his Majeſty that he will be graciouſly pleaſed to confer ſome ſignal mark of his royal favor upon the Right Honorable Edmund Sexten Pery, late Speaker of this Houſe, for his great and eminent ſervices performed to this country, and the diſtinguiſhed ability and integrity with which he has preſided in the chair of this Houſe, and to aſſure his Majeſty that whatever expence his Majeſty ſhall think proper to be incurred upon that account, this Houſe will make good the ſame.

ORDERED,

RESOLVED, Nem. Con.

That an humble addreſs of thanks be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, for his wiſe and juſt adminiſtration.

ORDERED,

That a committee be appointed to draw up an addreſs to be preſented to his Grace upon the ſaid reſolution.

And a committee was appointed accordingly.

Mr. Griffith preſented to the Houſe, according to order, a bill for amending and carrying more effectually into force the ſeveral laws now in force for regulating the public gaols and priſons throughout this kingdom; which was received and read the firſt time.

ORDERED,

That the bill be printed.

A motion was made, and the queſtion being put, that an humble addreſs be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, that he will be pleaſed to give directions to his Majeſty's Attorney General to proſecute the following perſons, Charles Davis, George Darcy, John Maxwell, and Benjamin Mathews, for the offences ſeverally ſpecified in the report of the committee of this Houſe, appointed to take into conſideration the ſtate of the public priſons, gaols and bridewells in this kingdom,

It was carried in the affirmative.

RESOLVED, Nem. Con.

That an humble addreſs be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, that his Grace will be pleaſed to confer ſome high eccleſiaſtical preferment on the reverend William Foſter, chaplain to this Houſe, for his ſervice and attendance on the Houſe.

ORDERED,

That the ſaid addreſs be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant by ſuch members of this Houſe as are of his Majeſty's moſt honorable Privy Council.

THAT Mr. Speaker do communicate to the Right Honorable Edmund Sexten Pery, late Speaker of this Houſe, the thanks voted to him yeſterday by the Houſe.

Lord Headfort reported from the committee, appointed yeſterday to draw up an addreſs of thanks to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, for his wiſe and prudent adminiſtration, that they had drawn up an addreſs accordingly, which he read in his place, and after delivered in at the table, where the ſame was read, and afterwards read paragraph by paragraph, and agreed to by the Houſe, and is as follows:

TO HIS GRACE

CHARLES, Duke of RUTLAND,

LORD LIEUTENANT GENERAL, AND GENERAL GOVERNOR OF IRELAND;

THE HUMBLE

ADDRESS

OF THE

KNIGHTS, CITIZENS AND BURGESSES,
in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Grace,

WE, his Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal ſubjects, the Commons of Ireland, in Parliament aſſembled, beg leave humbly to expreſs to your Grace, with unaffected warmth, the ſatisfaction which we feel in every opportunity of teſtifying our reſpect for your perſon, and our attachment to your government. We cannot reflect upon your Grace's conſtant attention to the happineſs and welfare of this kingdom, without grateful acknowledgments to his Majeſty, that his Majeſty has been pleaſed to give us ſo acceptable a proof of his royal favor as the continuing your Grace in the government of Ireland. The generous humanity of diſpoſition, and high ſenſe of honour which diſtinguiſh your Grace's private character, have, in conjunction with your your hereditary ſpirit and firmneſs, endeared you to the nation, by their happy influence on your public conduct.

WE humbly deſire your Grace to accept our ſincere thanks for thoſe exertions, which, in conſequence of our unanimous addreſs, and in obedience to his Majeſty's commands, your Grace employed, during the laſt interval between our ſeſſions, in preparing a plan of commercial intercourſe with Great Britain. We are aware that the utmoſt delicacy and caution are neceſſary for the conduct of meaſures in which the rights and intereſts of both kingdoms are equally concerned, and muſt be equally regarded; and we entertain a juſt ſenſe of the attention your Grace has manifeſted to this principle, that their completion ſhould depend upon the public ſatisfaction. We truſt therefore that the further conſideration of this ſubject will be purſued with that temper, that ſpirit of conciliation, and that impartial attention to the general welfare of the whole empire, which alone can enſure permanency to any ſyſtem, or enable the wiſdom of Parliament to perfect ſuch an equal, reciprocal and juſt arrangement as may unite both kingdoms for ever in intereſt, and preſerve in each a firm confidence of mutual affection.

IT is our zealous and ardent wiſh that your Grace may long continue in the government of this kingdom, and contemplate, with growing pride and ſatisfaction, the ſucceſsful effects of your government, in the increaſing affection of a generous people, and in the progreſſive harmony and ſtrength of the empire.

And a motion being made, and the queſtion being put, that the ſaid addreſs do ſtand the addreſs of this Houſe to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant,

It was carried in the affirmative.

RESOLVED, Nem Con.

That Mr. Speaker, with the Houſe, do attend his Grace the Lord Lieutenant with the ſaid addreſs, and preſent the ſame to his Grace as the addreſs of this Houſe.

ORDERED,

That ſuch members of this Houſe as are of his Majeſty's moſt honorable privy council do deſire to know his Grace's pleaſure when he will be attended with the ſaid addreſs.

The Right Honorable Mr. Speaker reported that he had, purſuant to order, communicated to the Right Honorable Edmund Sexten Pery, late Speaker, the thanks of this Houſe, purſuant to the reſolution of Monday the 5th September inſtant; and that in anſwer thereto he received the following letter:

" DEAR SIR,

" I have this moment received your very kind let" ter of yeſterday, incloſing the reſolution of the Houſe
" of Commons, which confers on me the higheſt ho" nor. The firſt object of my wiſhes has ever been to " deſerve their approbation, and that reſolution has ſa-
" tisfied the utmoſt of my ambition, and left to poſte-

" rity

" rity a noble monument of their favor. No words " can expreſs, with ſufficient force, my gratitude, or " what I feel; the only return I can make will be to " offer up to heaven my conſtant and fervent prayers, " that the Commons of Ireland may ever preſerve the " conſtitution of the kingdom entire, and that their " conduct may be rewarded by the approbation of their " Sovereign and the confidence of the People. I have " the honor to be, with the greateſt reſpect, eſteem and " regard,

" Dear, Sir,
" Your moſt obliged,
" And moſt obedient ſervant,
" EDM. SEX. PERY."

" 7th Sept. 1785.

" To the Right Hon. the " Speaker of the Houſe
" of Commons of Ire-
" land."

And then the Houſe adjourned for half an hour.

Mr. Speaker reported that the Houſe had attended his Grace the Lord Lieutenant with the addreſs of this Houſe to his Grace, and that thereupon his Grace was pleaſed to return the anſwer following:

" I thank you ſincerely for this very honorable " and flattering teſtimony of your approbation. " I prize too highly the confidence of the Houſe of " Commons not to uſe my anxious and ſtrenuous " endeavours to preſerve it, by a conſtant attention " to the true intereſts of Ireland—they are inſe- " parably interwoven with thoſe of Great Britain; " and whatever ſyſtem ſhall tend to promote the " mutual advantage of the two countries, and to " connect them by cloſer ties of harmony and af- " fection, cannot fail of having my utmoſt aſſiſ- " tance."

ORDERED,

ORDERED,

That his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's anſwer be entered in the journals of this Houſe.

The Right Honorable Mr. Secretary Orde informed the Houſe, that his Grace the Lord Lieutenant had been attended with the addreſs of this Houſe to his Majeſty, in favour of the Right Honorable Edmund Sexten Pery, late Speaker of this Houſe; and that thereupon his Grace was pleaſed to return the anſwer following:

"I ſhall, with great pleaſure, immediately tranſmit this addreſs to his Majeſty."

ORDERED,

That his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's anſwer be entered in the journals of this Houſe.

The Right Honorable Mr. Secretary Orde alſo informed the Houſe, that his Grace the Lord Lieutenant having been waited upon with the addreſs of this Houſe, in favour of the Reverend William Foſter, Chaplain to this Houſe, was pleaſed to return the anſwer following:

"THAT his Grace will be happy to find himſelf enabled to take the earlieſt opportunity of complying with the wiſhes of the Houſe."

ORDERED,

That his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's anſwer be entered in the journals of this Houſe.

The Right Honorable Mr. Secretary Orde a[illegible] informed the Houſe, that the addreſs of this Houſe, that his Grace would be pleaſed to give directions to his Majeſty's Attorney-General to pr[illegible]ſecute the ſeveral ſheriffs ſheriffs officers in the ſaid addreſs named, had been preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, to which his Grace was pleaſed to return the anſwer following:

"THAT he had given directions accordingly."

ORDERED,

That his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's anſwer be entered in the journals of this Houſe.

A meſſage from his Grace the Lord Lieutenant by George Bernard, Eſq; Gentleman-Uſher of the Black Rod:

"MR. SPEAKER,

"It is his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's pleaſure "that this Houſe do attend him immediately in the "Houſe of Peers."

Accordingly Mr. Speaker, with the Houſe, went up to attend his Grace the Lord Lieutenant in the Houſe of Peers, where the royal aſſent was given to the following bills:

PUBLIC BILLS.

1. An act for the better carrying into execution the ſeveral laws for providing a maintenance for pariſh clerks, and for other purpoſes.

2. An act for directing the application of 2500l. granted to the Dublin ſociety, for the encouragement of manufactures, arts and ſciences.

3. An act to carry into further effect an act paſſed in the laſt ſeſſion of Parliament in this kingdom, entitled an act for the due accounting for all money granted for public works, charities and hoſpitals therein mentioned, and for the ordering a regular account in future of all monies entruſted to the corporation for carrying on the inland navigation, the truſtees of the linen manufacture, the Dublin ſociety, the corporation for paving the ſtreets of Dublin, and for other purpoſes therein mentioned.

4. An act to explain and amend an act paſſed in the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of his preſent Majeſty, entitled an act for aſcertaining the qualifications of ſuch perſons as ſhall take out commiſſions of the peace for counties at large.

5. An act to explain and amend ſeveral laws now in force for the encouragement of agriculture.

6. An act to prevent the exportation of hay from this kingdom for a limited time.

7. An act for repealing an act made in the firſt year of the reign of his late Majeſty king George the ſecond, entitled an act for regulating the meaſures made uſe of in buying and ſelling of corn, and for promoting huſbandry in this kingdom.

8. An act to amend an act, entitled an act for cleanſing the ports, harbours and rivers of the city of Cork, and of the towns of Galway, Sligo, Drogheda and Belfaſt, and for erecting a ballaſt-office in the ſaid city and each of the ſaid towns.

PRIVATE BILLS.

1. An act for veſting certain lands and premiſes therein mentioned, the eſtate of the Right Honorable John, Earl of Glandore, in truſtees, for raiſing a ſum, not exceeding 6500l. by demiſe, ſale or mortgage of a competent part thereof, for the purpoſes in the ſaid act mentioned, and to enable the ſaid Earl of Glandore to make building leaſes of part thereof.

2. An act to enable Jonathan Morton Pleydell, of Teignmouth, in the county of Devon, in the kingdom of of Great Britain, Eſquire, during his life, and after his deceaſe to empower Jonathan Morton Pleydell, his ſon, and the daughters of the ſaid Jonathan Morton Pleydell the elder, when they ſhall reſpectively be in poſſeſſion of his the ſaid Jonathan Morton Pleydell the elder's eſtate in the counties of Cavan and Meath, in the kingdom of Ireland, to make leaſes of ſaid lands, and for other purpoſes therein mentioned.

And then his Grace was pleaſed to make a ſpeech to both Houſes of Parliament, which is as follows:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

ALTHOUGH the very advanced ſeaſon of the year renders it expedient to conclude the preſent ſeſſion of Parliament, I flatter myſelf that the great object of adjuſting a commercial intercourſe with Great Britain has not in vain engaged your attention, and protracted your deliberations. You have repeatedly expreſſed your wiſhes for the attainment of an equitable ſettlement, and I have the ſatisfaction to obſerve that you continue to be impreſſed with a true ſenſe of its neceſſity and importance. You will have now the fulleſt leiſure to purſue your conſideration of the ſubject in private with that diſpaſſionate aſſiduity which it ſo eminently deſerves.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I am to thank you, in his Majeſty's name, for the liberal proviſion you have made for the public ſervice, and the honorable ſupport of his Majeſty's government. In your generous contribution of ſupplies you have not leſs conſulted the dignity of his crown than the real intereſts of his people. The neceſſity of preventing the accumulation of debt cannot be too ſtrongly enforced, and it ſhall be my earneſt and conſtant endeavour to render your wiſe exertions for this ſalutary purpoſe effectual and permanent.

My

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I feel the trueſt ſatisfaction in obſerving the various beneficial laws which have paſſed during this ſeſſion, and the wholeſome effects of your wiſdom in the returning tranquillity and induſtry, and in the riſing proſperity of the kingdom. The conduct of Parliament has had its juſt influence, their deliberate ſpirit and approved attention at all times to the public welfare has inſpired the people with full confidence in the legiſlature, and will teach them to conſider their true intereſts with calmneſs and diſcretion.

The nobleſt object to which I can direct my attention, and which will ever conſtitute the happineſs and pride of my life, is the eſtabliſhment of the proſperity of Ireland, by extending and ſecuring her commerce, and by cementing and perpetuating her connection with Great Britain. And I truſt you will continually cheriſh this ſentiment, in the national mind, that the ſtability and ſtrength of the empire can alone be ultimately inſured by uniting the intereſts and objects of both kingdoms in a general and equitable ſyſtem of reciprocal and common advantage.

And then the Lord Chancellor declared, that it was his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's pleaſure that this Parliament be prorogued to Tueſday the 22d Day of November next; and the Parliament was accordingly prorogued to Tueſday the 22d Day of November next.
